DOCKET NO. 9401

COMPLAINT COUNSEL’S OPPOSITION TO RESPONDENTS’ MOTION *IN LIMINE
TO EXCLUDE INVESTIGATIONAL HEARING TRANSCRIPTS

Respondents’ Motion In Limine to Exclude all Investigational Hearing Transcripts (“Motion”) disregards the FTC Rules of Practice. Respondents’ Motion seeks a blanket exclusion of evidence that is expressly admissible under Rule 3.43(b). There can be no valid basis for such a sweeping exclusion in contravention of the plain text of the rules. The investigational hearings (“IHs”) are relevant, material, and reliable, as recognized by Respondents’ own experts when they cited these transcripts throughout their expert reports. Accordingly, this Court should deny Respondents’ Motion.

Argument

I. The FTC Rules Explicitly Recognize the Admissibility of IH Transcripts

Respondents' Motion seeks to exclude all IH transcripts from evidence for a variety of reasons, claiming that their admission would violate Respondents' "rights to object, cross-examine and present evidence," would be "cumulative and wasteful," and would somehow allow the FTC to "vastly (and asymmetrically) expand its effective trial time." Respondents also argue that this Court should not admit IHs "the truth of the matter asserted" and that third-party IHs constitute "improper hearsay."<sup>1</sup> These arguments explicitly ignore the text of Rule 3.43(b) and the precedent of this Court. Respondents provide no reason why the Court should deviate from its prior practice as well as the clear language of Rule 3.43(b) and exclude all IH testimony.

Rule 3.43(b) requires admission of all evidence that is "relevant, material, and reliable," unless that evidence is more prejudicial than probative, or its presentation would cause "undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence." 16 C.F.R. § 3.43(b). Significantly, the Commission amended Rule 3.43(b) in 2009 to add language that expressly allows for the admission of IH transcripts:

"If otherwise meeting the standards for admissibility described in this paragraph, depositions, investigational hearings, prior testimony in Commission or other proceedings, expert reports, and any other form of hearsay, shall be admissible and shall not be excluded solely on the ground that they are or contain hearsay."

74 Fed. Reg. 1804-01, 1831 (Jan. 13, 2009) (emphasis added). In addition, Rule 3.43(b) requires admission of all relevant party-opponent statements. 16 C.F.R. § 3.43(b) (“Statements or testimony by a party-opponent, if relevant, shall be admitted.”) (emphasis added). The IH transcripts in this case are plainly admissible under Rule 3.43(b).

II. IH Testimony Is Reliable Evidence

In amending Rule 3.43(b) explicitly to include IH testimony in the list of admissible evidence, the Commission recognized that IH testimony is generally reliable. Respondents provide no argument supporting the position that the IH testimony in this case is so uniquely unreliable that all of it should be excluded in its entirety. The IHs were not conducted in any unusual manner but were conducted in accordance with all applicable Rules: pursuant to Rule 2.9, a court stenographer recorded the IH testimony and administered an oath; all witnesses were provided the opportunity to review and correct their transcripts; all witness were entitled to have counsel present during the IH, and the vast majority of witnesses were, in fact, represented by counsel at their IH.

Recognizing the reliability of the resulting testimony, Respondents’

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] } undermining any argument that these IHs are inherently unreliable or duplicative.

Furthermore, this Court has long recognized the reliability of IH testimony and routinely admits both party and non-party IH testimony into evidence. See, e.g., In re LabMD, Docket No. 9357, Final Prehearing Conference (May 15, 2014) at 9:17-10:8 (attached as Exhibit G) (noting the that Rule 3.43(b) has been changed to allow IH Testimony into evidence); In re McWane, Inc., Docket No. 9351 (attached as Exhibit I), Order Denying Respondent's Motion to Preclude Complaint Counsel's Proposed Proffer of Investigational Hearing Transcripts at Trial (Aug. 15, 2012); see also FTC v. Thomas Jefferson Univ., No. 2:20-cv-01113-GJP, ECF #224 (attached as Exhibit H) (E.D. Pa. Sept. 10, 2020) (denying defendant's motion to exclude IH testimony in a federal court preliminary injunction proceeding).

[REDACTED]

Although Respondents raise several claims about the purported unfairness of the rules governing FTC investigations, none of these arguments sufficiently undermines the reliability of IH testimony to justify their wholesale exclusion from evidence. Specifically, Respondents claim that because IHs are conducted ex parte, opposing counsel is denied the opportunity to cross examine witnesses or object to questions. But this argument rings hollow. As explained above, Respondents had the opportunity to depose and question each of the third-party witnesses during discovery. Moreover, Respondents were present during their clients' investigational hearings, had the opportunity to object and, in fact, did so hundreds of times. To the extent Respondents believed there were issues that needed clarification, they were free to submit either an errata or declaration correcting any alleged deficiency.<sup>3</sup>

Respondents' Motion also mischaracterizes both the applicable rules and the record in this matter. Contrary to Respondents' claim, Rule 2.9(b)(2) does not require counsel to limit objections to only objections made on the basis of scope or privilege. Instead, the rule states

<sup>3</sup> Respondents' arguments confuse the gathering of testimonial evidence during an investigation or discovery with trial testimony. The fact that rules governing IHs differ from the rules governing FTC adjudicative proceedings is not surprising—rules governing trials and discovery often differ—and has no bearing on the relevance, reliability, or ultimate admissibility of IH transcripts. The 60-year-old case cited by Respondents for the proposition that investigational evidence is not incorporated into the adjudicatory process, Hannah v. Larche, 363 U.S. 420, 446 (1960), merely states that the FTC investigatory rules provide due process because the adjudicative proceeding provides traditional judicial safeguards. It does not suggest that IH testimony gathered during this investigation, or generally, is unreliable.

“[a]ny objection during a deposition or investigational hearing shall be stated concisely on the hearing record in a non-argumentative and nonsuggestive manner” and that the witness shall answer except when asked to “divulge information protected by the claim of protected status.” 16 C.F.R. § 2.9 (b)(2). For the fifteen IHs of party witnesses, Respondents’ own counsel was present and aggressively objected, including objections to the form of the question<sup>4</sup> and to questions purportedly asked and answered.<sup>5</sup> { [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] }

Respondents also claim that because some of the IH transcripts contain allegedly leading or speculative questions, all of the IH transcripts should be excluded in their entirety. Respondents, however, do not attempt to identify specific testimony that is unreliable. Respondents will have the opportunity post-trial to object to any testimony that Complaint Counsel relies upon in its proposed findings of fact, including on grounds of reliability. Respondents cite no authority nor explain how IH testimony is either generally unreliable or specifically unreliable in this case. To the extent any of Respondents’ arguments have merit,

they merely go to the weight a fact finder may assign to specific IH testimony, not its admissibility.<sup>6</sup>

Lastly, Respondents' claim that "[t]he trial will not provide an adequate opportunity for Respondents to remedy the unfairness of the IHTs" and impermissibly allow the FTC "more than 100 hours of [additional] trial time" is completely baseless. The relevant rules explicitly allow the admission of IH transcripts without limitation despite Rule 3.41(b) stating that the "hearing ... should be limited to no more than 210 hours." 16 C.F.R. § 3.41(b). Moreover, neither the Rules nor this Court's Scheduling Order provide any limit on the number of depositions that Respondents could conduct. Thus, Respondents had ample opportunity to supplement their trial testimony with deposition testimony if they wanted to do so.

III. The IH Testimony Is Not Cumulative

Respondents' argue that the IH testimony should be excluded as cumulative because of the large volume of transcripts. While some of the IH witnesses also were deposed, the depositions covered many different topics, including { [REDACTED] }
 [REDACTED] } The mere fact that the same witness testified on more than one occasion does not mean that the testimony is wholly, or partially, duplicative.

Respondents argue repeatedly, however, that because the FTC is seeking to admit these IH transcripts in their entirety as opposed to designated portions, the testimony is inherently cumulative and that it would be "unfair and prejudicial to force Respondents to use their own scarce trial time to respond to over 6,000 pages of IH testimony.”<sup>7</sup> Of course, much of the IH testimony is from the parties’ own executives given in the presence of Respondents’ counsel.

In any event, Respondents cannot credibly claim both that the IH testimony is so cumulative as to be inadmissible and simultaneously claim that the admissibility of IHs is the same as granting, “over 100 hours of ... questioning into the record” to Complaint Counsel such that it would be “unfair and prejudicial” to Respondents to use their “scarce” trial time to respond. Responding to truly duplicative evidence would not add to Respondents’ trial burden. It also does not make sense for any court to decide how much evidence is cumulative any one issue prior to a trial before evidence has been admitted or considered.

Respondents attempt to distinguish this Court’s decision in McWane from the present matter on the basis that the IH testimony proffered in McWane was merely excerpts and not the entirety of the transcript. Unlike in McWane, however, the Scheduling Order in this matter as well as numerous other recent matters including In re Altria Group, Inc., Docket No. 9393, In re Otto Bock HealthCare North America, Inc., Docket No. 9378, and In re Tronox Limited, Docket No. 9377 (attached as exhibits J,K, and L), requires neither IH nor deposition transcript designations.<sup>8</sup> In accordance with this Court’s longstanding practice, Respondents can object to the portions of any IH testimony that Complaint Counsel relies on in its post-trial proposed findings of fact in Respondents’ own reply findings of fact. To the extent this Court considers any portions of IH testimony not cited in Complaint Counsel’s proposed findings of fact, this Court is capable of assessing the reliability of such testimony and assigning the appropriate weight.

IV. The IH Transcripts Are Not Inadmissible Hearsay

Lastly, Respondents' assert that "IH testimony should not be admitted to prove the truth of the matters addressed therein"<sup>9</sup> and that non-party IH transcripts should be excluded because they contain hearsay.<sup>10</sup> Both arguments lack merit. Rule 3.43(b) states that, if they otherwise meet the standards of admissibility under the rule, "investigational hearings . . . and any other form of hearsay, shall be admissible and shall not be excluded solely on the ground that they are or contain hearsay." Rule 3.43(b). Rule 3.43(b) further states that "Hearsay is a statement, other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the hearing, offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted." Therefore, based on the plain meaning of Rule 3.43(b), any evidence, including IH transcripts of party and third-party witnesses, that is hearsay but "otherwise meet[s] the standards for admissibility" under the rule can be offered "to prove the truth of the matters addressed therein."

Conclusion

For the above reasons, Complaint Counsel respectfully requests that this Court deny Respondent's Motion.

1 PROCEEDINGS

3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Call to order Docket 9357,
4 In Re LabMD.

5 This is our final prehearing conference.
6 We're having technical problems, but I'm going
7 to go ahead and start.

8 I'm going to begin with the appearances of the 9 parties, and we'll start with the government.

10 MS. VANDRUFF: Good morning, Your Honor.
11 Laura VanDruff, complaint counsel.

12 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right.

13 MR. SHEER: Good morning, Your Honor. I'm
14 Alain Sheer, complaint counsel.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Do you want to identify the 16 people at your counsel table?

17 MS. VANDRUFF: Certainly, Your Honor.

18 Joining us today at counsel table is Jarad Brown
19 and Maggie Lassack and then our trial support technician
20 Jon Owens.

21 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Thank you.

22 And for respondents?

23 MR. SHERMAN: Good morning, Your Honor.
24 William Sherman on behalf of LabMD.

25 Would you like for me to introduce --

1 Each side has submitted a final proposed
2 witness list. I'm looking at about 44 for the
3 government and about 34 for respondent. Some of those
4 are listed on both. I'm hoping that's not serious.

5 How many witnesses do you actually plan to
6 call? Let's start with the government.

7 MS. VANDRUFF: If I may, Your Honor. Yes, the 8 complaint counsel intends to call four live witnesses in 9 its case in chief.

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That's much better.

11 MS. VANDRUFF: All are expert witnesses,
12 Your Honor. We have Professor Hill, Mr. Van Dyke,
13 Mr. Kam, and Professor Shields.

14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. Respondent, do you have 15 some idea of how many witnesses you actually are going
16 to call?

17 MR. SHERMAN: Yes, Your Honor. We plan to call
18 approximately nine to ten witnesses live.

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. All right. Thank you.

20 I've got some objections to witnesses, starting 21 out with complaint counsel filed objections to four 22 witnesses.

23 Have any of these objections been resolved?

24 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor. With respect to 25 Mr. Kaufman, I believe that our objections were resolved

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes. I'd like to know who is
2 at counsel table.

3 MR. SHERMAN: At counsel table is
4 Kent Huntington, who's co-counsel from Cause of Action,
5 also representing LabMD; my partner, who is
6 Reed Rubinstein from Dinsmore & Shohl, also representing 7 LabMD; and Mike Pepson, who is also co-counsel from 8 Cause of Action, also representing LabMD.

9 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. Thank you.

10 You need to stand and speak. That's the 11 practice here. But also you need to try to lean over to 12 the microphone.

13 And I need to let you know we have an elevator
14 issue in the building. The elevators we normally take 15 are out of service. They say July, but don't bet on 16 it.

17 We're going to be taking probably a freight
18 elevator, so when -- I'm telling you this because when
19 we take a break, let's say I plan to be back at 2:00, I
20 may not be back at 2:00. If there's someone moving
21 freight between floors below me, we're going to be
22 awhile, so I'm going to do my best to be here when I say
23 I'll be here, but I need a waiver, I need an elevator
24 waiver.

25 Let's talk about witnesses.

1 by your ruling on our motion in limine.

2 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I thought so. Okay.

3 MS. VANDRUFF: With respect to Mr. Gormley, we
4 understand that respondent's counsel intends to call
5 him live. If that is the case, our objection is 6 obviated.

7 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

8 MS. VANDRUFF: And then with respect to 9 Officer Lapides, respondent's counsel, subsequent to the 10 time of our filing of our objections, clarified that 11 they would be calling him live, and so our objection is 12 mooted.

13 Likewise, they also indicated that with respect
14 to Mr. Garcia that they had no intention of calling him,
15 and therefore, our objection is mooted.

16 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Is one of these witnesses
17 incarcerated?

18 MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, Mr. Garcia -- we
19 don't know. He's been incarcerated from time to time.
20 We do not intend to call him, but he would be the only
21 one that incarceration would be an issue.

22 JUDGE CHAPPELL: If he is, he would love flying
23 over here to testify. Wearing a suit and a tie? He'd 24 love that.

25 MR. SHERMAN: I'm sure --

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I'd love hearing him
 2 questioned, but --
 3 MR. SHERMAN: We don't find his testimony to be 4 necessary.
 5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. Thank you.
 6 As a former prosecutor, I just have to comment
 7 on things like that.
 8 All right. So now we're down to respondent's
 9 objections to complaint counsel witnesses. I've got a
 10 couple objections, one as to the designated testimony of 11 Curt --
 12 MR. SHERMAN: Kaloustian.
 13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: -- Kaloustian -- thank you --
 14 the nonpublic hearing taken in the Phase II
 15 investigation of LabMD, otherwise known here as an 16 investigational hearing transcript or IHT.
 17 The rule has been changed recently, 3.43(b), and 18 IHTs are now admissible. I'm not saying I agree with 19 that, but that's the rule.
 20 Respondent also objects to complaint counsel's
 21 expert witness Professor Hill's heavy reliance on 22 Mr. Kaloustian's uncross-examined testimony.
 23 Again, IHT testimony is admissible, but be 24 advised that -- first of all, your objection goes to 25 the weight, not the admissibility, so I'm going to

1 overrule that objection. But the parties are advised
 2 that although they are admissible, they're taken
 3 without counsel, without respondent present, don't 4 expect them to be given a lot of weight in this
 5 proceeding.
 6 When they are cited in posttrial findings, the 7 opposing side is encouraged to point out in their
 8 responses that it was taken from an IHT.
 9 Let me talk about motions to quash.
 10 Two nonparties have filed motions to quash the 11 trial subpoenas served on them by respondent,
 12 Eric Johnson --
 13 (Pause in the proceedings.)
 14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And the second is 15 Robert Boback.
 16 MR. SHERMAN: "Boback."
 17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: "Boback."
 18 Their objections seem to be based on scheduling
 19 issues and rely principally on the fact that they 20 already testified by deposition and shouldn't be 21 required to come here live.
 22 I've got respondent's opposition to
 23 Eric Johnson's motion.
 24 Does complaint counsel intend to file a response
 25 or do you want to address that motion now?

PUBLIC

1 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.
 2 Complaint counsel does not intend to take a
 3 position as to either motion, although we would just
 4 note that while we had listed Mr. Boback as a potential
 5 live witness, we're satisfied with having submitted to 6 the court his deposition testimony.
 7 Likewise, as indicated in Mr. Boback's motion,
 8 we have also consented to the alternative relief that 9 Mr. Boback requested, which is that he appear by 10 videoconference.
 11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Did you mean to be talking
 12 about Boback the whole time there, because you said
 13 likewise Mr. Boback?
 14 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor.
 15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: You're not addressing
 16 Eric Johnson.
 17 MS. VANDRUFF: With respect to Mr. Johnson,
 18 complaint counsel is not taking a position.
 19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: No position at all. But with 20 Boback, you're not intending to call him live.
 21 MS. VANDRUFF: We are not taking a position with 22 respect to the motion and we are not intending to call
 23 him live. That's correct, Your Honor.
 24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. Which takes care of the 25 subpoena, if possible.

1 Does that change your position if he's not going
 2 to be called live?
 3 MR. SHERMAN: No, it doesn't, Your Honor.
 4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: You still want him here.
 5 MR. SHERMAN: We want him here. We believe that 6 it is of significant benefit to the trier of fact to 7 have the witness here to be observed as he testifies for 8 all the benefits of live interaction between humans, as 9 the judge is well aware.
 10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I'm going to take this under 11 advisement. I'll rule on this motion later -- actually 12 two motions later.
 13 Well, let me talk about --
 14 MR. SHERMAN: Oh, Your Honor, may I?
 15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yeah. Actually I've got your
 16 response on Johnson but not on Boback.
 17 Do you intend to file a written response?
 18 MR. SHERMAN: Today.
 19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Good. Then I'll hold off until 20 I get your response.
 21 MR. SHERMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.
 22 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. I'll ask my staff
 23 to make note of that.
 24 All right. Let's talk about exhibits and 25 objections thereto.

15

1 On May 14, the parties filed a document titled
2 Joint Stipulations on Admissibility of Evidence, which
3 was labeled JX 2.

4 In paragraph 1 of that stip, the parties
5 stipulated that the exhibits listed in attachment A are 6 admitted without objection. I'm glad to see that the 7 parties were able to work out a number of objections to 8 many of the proposed exhibits.

9 As to the remaining exhibits, let's talk about
10 how those are going to be handled.

11 If I'm understanding this correctly, the parties
12 have made two proposals relating to exhibits not
13 appearing in attachment A.

14 First, the parties are proposing that if such 15 materials are relied upon in posttrial briefing, any 16 party may reassert an objection to such material at that 17 stage. The objection may be made in reply briefs or in 18 any appropriate form.

19 Second, the parties are proposing that if such
20 material is used during the hearing for any reason, a
21 party may elect to seek a ruling or object at that time
22 or defer objecting.

23 Nice try, but if I accepted that, we wouldn't
24 even be here today, because we're here today to deal
25 with documents and exhibits that are objected to, so

1 understand.

2 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor.

3 So what are not agreed to are a subset of 4 respondent's exhibits, fewer than a quarter, to which 5 complaint counsel has an objection, and then with the 6 exception of the complaint counsel exhibits that appear
7 on both the complaint counsel's exhibit list and
8 respondent's exhibit list, it is all of complaint
9 counsel's exhibits.

10 I believe it is the position of respondent's
11 counsel, though I will let Mr. Sherman address this,
12 that it was premature to address the admissibility of 13 any of complaint counsel's exhibits with the exception
14 of those that are also identified on the respondent's
15 counsel's exhibit list.

16 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Are these all exhibits you plan
17 to offer or you just listed them on an exhibit list
18 prior to trial?

19 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor. We do intend to 20 present for admission the documents that are listed on 21 our exhibit list.

22 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And do you plan to have
23 testimony to tie up what these documents are to connect
24 to them?

25 MS. VANDRUFF: Both live testimony and

1 we're not going to say that's fine and move along. I've
2 got to know more about what these documents are. I
3 don't have enough to deal with it or make a ruling right
4 now.

5 But if I agree with this stipulation, today
6 would be meaningless, and we would be interrupted during
7 trial at any time. When I get a witness on the stand --
8 that's why I do this today -- I want it to 9 move (indicating). I want to have questions and 10 answers. I don't want to be interrupted with objections
11 on exhibits and evidence we can deal with now. That's 12 why we're here.

13 I'm going to -- we're going to take a recess
14 here in a little while, and I'm going to let you talk
15 about this category of documents that are not yet agreed 16 to.

17 I can't tell from this stipulation -- anybody
18 can answer this. How many exhibits are at issue in this 19 category?

20 MS. VANDRUFF: I'd be happy to address that,
21 Your Honor.

22 With respect to attachment A, it represents 23 the --

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: No, no. I mean the ones that
25 aren't agreed to. Attachment A is agreed to, as I

1 designated testimony, yes, Your Honor.

3 MR. SHERMAN: Well, Your Honor, complaint
4 counsel is correct. I had reservations based on my 5 experience in stipulating to the admissibility of 6 documents or exhibits based on some of the questions
7 you just asked, the fact that no foundation has been 8 laid for them. And in my opinion, it's the province of 9 the court as to whether or not any document is 10 admissible.

11 It appeared to me -- and I was a bit confused,
12 because I've never appeared before this honorable court,
13 as to how we would actually agree to the admissibility.

14 What is on Exhibit A are exhibits to which we 15 do not have an objection. They have no objection to 16 our exhibits. We have no objection to their exhibits.

17 I made a general objection to every exhibit
18 based upon the presentation of proofs as it occurs
19 during the hearing, whether or not of course there was 20 foundation, whether or not the exhibit was actually 21 identified by a witness and therefore subject to the 22 court's consideration as the court considers the 23 evidence that was produced during the trial.

24 Now it's my understanding that this court would 25 prefer that if we can agree that those exhibits then be

1 admitted, if I'm understanding what the court is
 2 saying.
 3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, I'm not saying I'm going
 4 to admit them if you don't agree to it. If you don't
 5 admit them, I'll hear objections to it.
 6 But I'll tell you what, have a seat, and let me
 7 go over some general rules here.
 8 The commission's rule governing admissibility of 9 evidence, rule 3.43(b), is a fairly relaxed standard.
 10 We don't have a jury here. I'm not going to be worried
 11 about seeing something and deciding later it's worthless
 12 or I don't need to consider it. We don't have to worry
 13 about the jury issue.
 14 I expect the parties to be judicious with 15 objections, pose only objections that are truly
 16 necessary and valid.
 17 We will have a recess later. During that 18 recess, I'll have the parties get together and agree to 19 some categories of documents, hopefully.
 20 And what I'm talking about is, a lot of these,
 21 in my experience, are going to be what are called
 22 business records. That's a big category, and you can
 23 throw them all in there and deal with that at one time.
 24 I don't have to hear -- if there are 500 documents that
 25 are business records, I don't have to hear

1 Are you at respondent's counsel table familiar
 2 with something called the Lenox rule?
 3 MR. SHERMAN: No, sir.
 4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: The Lenox rule is tailor-made
 5 for the government. Basically it says documents in 6 respondent's files are going to be admissible, and maybe
 7 that will help with some of the objections.
 8 MR. SHERMAN: Well, just to clarify, we have a
 9 specific objection to only one of their documents. The 10 other objections were, as I stated before, those 11 objections which may come as a result of how the 12 exhibits are presented during the proofs. That's it.
 13 That's our position.
 14 And I'm still not quite clear whether, if we 15 agree to the admissibility, whether there's any 16 opportunity to object to whether or not the exhibit is 17 admitted no matter how it comes across during the 18 presentation of the proofs.
 19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, I suggest, when you meet
 20 during the recess, you discuss this and tell me how you
 21 want to proceed with that issue. It could be that they 22 can tell you what they plan to do and you can decide how
 23 to proceed from there.
 24 Were you going to say something?
 25 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor. You had raised

1 500 objections.
 2 The party who wishes to offer these exhibits is
 3 going to have to give me their theory of admissibility,
 4 and the party opposing, I'll hear them on why they
 5 shouldn't be allowed.
 6 If the parties aren't able to agree after our 7 break, I'm going to deal with the objections today to 8 the extent possible and not during trial.
 9 Keep this in mind, though. Although the rules
 10 are somewhat relaxed, if either side has withheld
 11 documents from the other side during discovery, withheld
 12 documents will not be admitted over objection. Now, I
 13 say "over objection" because I don't know if I'm going
 14 to hear an objection.
 15 If a document is not admitted today, the 16 offering party may reurge admission of a document. And
 17 I'm talking about if you've offered a document and I
 18 haven't allowed it. You may reurge that only if you
 19 have a witness who takes the stand who you think may 20 demonstrate foundation, reliability, those kind of 21 things, so I will allow that exception to something I
 22 have not allowed.
 23 Any questions based on that on what I expect
 24 regarding these exhibits?
 25 Although before, let me tell you this also.

1 the question of whether the parties were clear, and
 2 complaint counsel is clear about your expectation,
 3 Your Honor.
 4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Are you prepared to address the
 5 issue he just raised, how you intend to introduce a
 6 document?
 7 MS. VANDRUFF: The specific document?
 8 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Or a category of documents?
 9 MS. VANDRUFF: Forgive me. I believe that 10 Mr. Sherman is addressing a single spreadsheet that he 11 raised in the objections that were filed with 12 Your Honor. But in case I'm mistaken, I would 13 appreciate Mr. Sherman's confirmation that that is the 14 one document?
 15 MR. SHERMAN: Well, that is the one document,
 16 but, as you know, I posted a general objection to all
 17 exhibits depending upon how they are presented during 18 the presentation of --
 19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I think I understand, but give 20 me an example.
 21 MR. SHERMAN: Well, an example would be, for 22 example, if no witness even testifies about the 23 document. If we've, you know, pretrial agreed that the 24 document is admitted for the court's consideration, but 25 during the proofs, no witness has testified as to that

23

1 document, identified that document, and it has not been
2 identified or testified to by designated testimony in
3 any of the depositions, then I would like to be able to 4 object to that exhibit being admitted for the court's
5 consideration.

6 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, I understand your point.
7 I've been in your shoes, and I've been on this side of 8 the table. But you need to defend your client, and you
9 don't want to have to do that after trial with a
10 thousand documents that weren't discussed, because if 11 you know what's happening during trial, you can defend 12 your client during trial.

13 We don't want to get in a position where
14 respondent has to defend themselves after the record
15 closes. And I think you told me, though, that that 16 shouldn't be a concern. You plan to have someone
17 connect or sponsor all the documents you intend to use.

18 MS. VANDRUFF: That's correct, Your Honor. Not
19 necessarily through live testimony.

20 For example, we have business -- in responding
21 to your question, Your Honor, we do intend to tie up all
22 of the documents that we intend to introduce as 23 evidence. Not all of that will be done through live
24 testimony.

25 JUDGE CHAPPELL: No. I understand that. If

1 he's objected to.

2 And if you're ready, I'll go ahead and hear that
3 right now. What is that document?

4 MR. SHERMAN: That document is a --

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Wait a minute. Who's offering
6 it?

7 MR. SHERMAN: Complaint counsel is offering it.

8 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let me have your offer and your
9 theory of admissibility.

10 MS. VANDRUFF: Certainly, Your Honor.

11 Just to be clear, Mr. Sherman, we are talking
12 about RX -- excuse me -- CX 451; is that correct?

13 MR. SHERMAN: That's correct.

14 MS. VANDRUFF: Okay. And bear with me,
15 Your Honor. I'll just find my notes.

16 So CX 451 is a document that was created by an
17 investigator at the direction of complaint counsel. It 18 is a document that supports paragraph 21 of our 19 complaint.

20 And in particular, what we directed our 21 investigator to do -- this is an individual who's been 22 deposed by counsel for respondent -- was to determine
23 whether Social Security numbers found in LabMD documents
24 that were seized by the Sacramento Police Department had 25 been used by individuals with different names.

1 you're using the affidavit that comports with the
2 federal rule on business records, that's going to come
3 in.

4 MR. SHERMAN: And in fact, Your Honor, I think
5 we agreed even as late as yesterday that I would not
6 even require them to bring in the individual to say
7 that this document is a business record kept in the 8 normal course and an exact-copy duplicate, don't want to 9 waste the court's time with those type of formal
10 requirements.

11 My point is that it was just unfamiliar to me
12 to say let's look at all the documents that you intend 13 to introduce as evidence at trial and say okay, they're 14 admitted, no matter what happens during --

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Regardless of what you might 16 have gathered in pretrial proceedings, we're here now,
17 and this is all about fairness and truth. That's where 18 we are now. There's not going to be anything unfair
19 going on in front of me.

20 MR. SHERMAN: I've only objected to one
21 document, Your Honor.

22 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And that goes both ways.

23 So I think we don't know enough now to know if 24 this is going to be an objection or not to these other
25 categories of documents. We know there's one document

1 He ran a search through a commercially available
2 database that is made available by Thomson Reuters, and
3 the results of the search is what we intend to introduce
4 at CX 0451.

5 We believe that that -- that the authenticity of 6 that document has been demonstrated through the
7 examination of our witness, Mr. Wilmer, and that it
8 falls within the residual exception to the hearsay rule
9 because it has indicia of reliability.

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, give me a summary of what
11 the document says. Did he find the Social Security
12 numbers being used by others? Because if he did not, I
13 don't know why you're offering it.

14 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor. Yes.

15 While he is not offering an opinion because he 16 is a lay witness, Mr. Wilmer, through the course of his 17 investigatory work, the results of that search are --
18 does support the conclusion that the Social Security
19 numbers on the LabMD documents found by the 20 Sacramento Police Department in October of 2012 are 21 being used, some of them, are being used by people with 22 different names.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right.

24 MR. SHERMAN: I think there are two problems
25 with this exhibit.

PUBLIC

27

1 One is that the only person who is going to
2 testify as to the contents of the exhibit is
3 Mr. Wilmer. Mr. Wilmer testified in his deposition
4 that the information in the document was populated by
5 this third party, I'll say Thomson Reuters.

6 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Hang on a second.
7 Is this witness going to be called?

8 MS. VANDRUFF: Your Honor, Mr. Wilmer has sat
9 for a deposition, and we were intending to produce his 10 testimony, submit his testimony to Your Honor by 11 designation. If you would prefer, we can call him
12 live.

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, let's see.
14 Go ahead.

15 MR. SHERMAN: The information in the document
16 was populated by information contained on 17 Thomson Reuters' commercially available search product
18 called CLEAR.

19 Mr. Wilmer testified that what he did was he
20 formulated a list of all of the Social Security numbers
21 and then ran them through CLEAR.

22 Our objection is that, first of all, we think
23 that it's -- we need to test the information's
24 reliability. We think it's unreliable. There's no one
25 from Thomson Reuters or CLEAR to even come in and

1 the Sacramento Police Department were correctly linked
2 to the names in the documents found by --

3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What I'm saying is, if you're
4 asking me to assume that every name and every
5 Social Security number associated with that name was 6 correct, do you have any evidence demonstrating that 7 they were correct, other than you want me to assume 8 that?

9 MS. VANDRUFF: Well, Your Honor, we're not 10 going to ask you to make a finding that any specific
11 individual was individually -- that his or her
12 Social Security number was misused but rather that the 13 Social Security numbers that were identified in the 14 LabMD documents found by the Sacramento Police
15 Department were used by people with different names, and 16 then we have an expert witness who's prepared to offer
17 the opinion that that may be an indication of identity
18 theft, Your Honor.

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: May be an indication? That's 20 pretty weak. May be an indication or is an indication?

21 MS. VANDRUFF: Well, Your Honor, our expert
22 witness will testify on exactly that subject.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That it may be an indication of 24 possible identity theft? I think I read that in the 25 summary. I believe that's what I read.

1 explain how the technology works.

2 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So you're saying hearsay within
3 hearsay.

4 MR. SHERMAN: Hearsay upon hearsay, Judge.

5 And secondly, I don't think that the information
6 proves anything. It's far more prejudicial than 7 probative.

8 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What's your summary of what it
9 shows, the document?

10 MR. SHERMAN: The summary of what it shows is 11 that there are Social Security numbers that are 12 associated with people who have different names. It
13 doesn't say when those persons began using those 14 Social Security numbers. It doesn't even say whether
15 the Social Security numbers that appear on the LabMD
16 documents were being used fraudulently.

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, I was just going to ask
18 for that.

19 Are you prepared to demonstrate that the 20 Social Security numbers were accurate as they were 21 listed in the LabMD documents? Maybe someone made an 22 error when they entered a Social Security number.

23 MS. VANDRUFF: So just to be fair, Your Honor,
24 your question is whether complaint counsel has evidence
25 that Social Security numbers in the documents found by

1 MS. VANDRUFF: I don't have his expert report in
2 front of me, but I believe it is his opinion that it may
3 be an indication of identity theft, Your Honor.

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So let me boil this down.
5 You're saying that your position is, these
6 Social Security numbers, whether they're accurate or not
7 as to the person whose name was on that original
8 document, your position is, those Social Security
9 numbers may have been used by someone else.

10 MS. VANDRUFF: Well, we think that Your Honor
11 can assess --

12 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Did I miss something there?

13 MS. VANDRUFF: I'm sorry?

14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Did I miss something on what 15 you're asking me to do bottom line? Assume they're 16 correct or just say -- well, basically it boils down to 17 this. These Social Security numbers, whether they're 18 correct or not, may have been used by others.

19 MS. VANDRUFF: Well, what we're asking
20 Your Honor to do is to make a determination that relates 21 to paragraph 21 of our complaint that indeed the 22 Social Security numbers that are identified in the LabMD
23 documents --

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, you don't need to keep 25 referring to paragraph 21. Whether it's relevant or

1 not, we're past that, so I don't care what paragraph it
 2 relates to. I'm getting to reliability here.
 3 So go ahead.
 4 MS. VANDRUFF: Well, with respect to
 5 reliability, we think that there are indicia of 6 reliability. Mr. Wilmer, again, used a commercially
 7 available database. He was subject to examination at 8 length by counsel for respondent. And we think that the 9 output of his work is something that Your Honor can 10 evaluate.

11 For example, you will see that certain
 12 Social Security numbers, they are being used by people
 13 of different names, at different locations, different
 14 genders and different ages, and what weight Your Honor
 15 chooses to give to that is certainly within the province
 16 of the court.

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And these were the numbers, if 18 memory serves, that were found in a dumpster in 19 California?

20 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor. They were found
 21 in the hands of identity thieves by the 22 Sacramento Police Department.

23 MR. SHERMAN: I would just contend that they 24 weren't found in the hands of identity thieves.
 25 These --

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Someone needs to turn that
 2 phone off.

3 MS. VANDRUFF: If I knew how to do it,
 4 Your Honor, I'd be happy to do it.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Someone is calling our
 6 speakerphone? Just rip that cord out of there.

7 MR. SHERMAN: I thought you were getting ready
 8 to get kicked out of the courtroom.

9 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That was timed to throw you off
 10 your game.

11 MR. SHERMAN: There's been no connection between 12 the individuals who were arrested and pled and these 13 documents. There's no connection between the fact that
 14 these documents are being used -- the Social Security
 15 numbers on these documents are being used by other
 16 people and the fact that these documents appeared in 17 Sacramento.

18 This document that they wish to present doesn't
 19 say when these Social Security numbers were being used
 20 by more than one person. It could have very well
 21 happened five years ago, prior to this document being
 22 found outside of LabMD's possession.

23 And as I stated before, the person who got 24 services from LabMD, they could have been using someone
 25 else's Social Security number, so there's really no

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Am I incorrect? Is there a
 2 dumpster involved here somewhere?

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

5 MR. SHERMAN: There's a house in Sacramento.

6 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I read that in some pleading.
 7 I guess somebody was embellishing, but go ahead.

8 MR. SHERMAN: The Sacramento Police Department
 9 got wind of somebody stealing electricity -- gas and 10 electric.

11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Do we have an agreement on how 12 these documents were found?

13 MR. SHERMAN: By the Sacramento Police
 14 Department as they did a raid on this house.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Oh, a raid on a house. Okay.

16 MR. SHERMAN: For people stealing gas and
 17 electric.

18 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

19 MR. SHERMAN: And they found these documents.

20 There's evidence that there's communication
 21 between the Sacramento Police Department and the FTC
 22 which says, Well, we'll let you know if these guys had
 23 any connection with the receipt of the LabMD documents,
 24 so there's really no connection between these
 25 individuals who were arrested and pled --

1 connection between the fact that these day sheets were
 2 found in Sacramento and these Social Security numbers
 3 are being used by more than one person.

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So your objection is hearsay,
 5 but it boils down to reliability.

6 MR. SHERMAN: Absolutely.

7 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

8 So you're asking me to basically accept an
 9 opinion from a lay witness.

10 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor. The lay witness
 11 is not offering any opinion. He performed a task at the 12 direction --

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: He's offering an opinion that
 14 these Social Security numbers were used by someone else
 15 based on research you told him to do?

16 MS. VANDRUFF: No. No, Your Honor. His
 17 conclusion is that the output of his database search is 18 that there are certain numbers that are being used by 19 people with different names, and he is drawing that 20 conclusion from the face of the document. It is not an 21 opinion, Your Honor.

22 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Have you read what I wrote
 23 about Mr. Johnson, Eric Johnson?

24 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor. Your ruling
 25 on --

33

PUBLIC

35

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: You're not dancing around the
2 edges there, are you?

3 MS. VANDRUFF: I don't intend to, Your Honor,
4 no.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Because I will not accept that 6 type of opinion from someone who's not designated an
7 expert because it's not fair.

8 MS. VANDRUFF: I understand.

9 JUDGE CHAPPELL: It's not been vetted, hasn't 10 been through the ringer, so...

11 All right. I'll consider this. I'll take it
12 under advisement, and we'll deal with it after the 13 break.

14 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I'm pretty sure someone
16 referred to that as a flophouse. Am I correct?

17 MR. SHERMAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

18 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And maybe somebody referred to 19 a dumpster, I don't know, but I do remember flophouse
20 for sure.

21 MR. SHERMAN: There's a dumpster in another case
22 that's been cited repeatedly, the Revco case.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. I knew there was 24 something about a dumpster.

25 So just so I'm clear, police carried out a

1 MS. VANDRUFF: Complaint counsel understands,
2 Your Honor.

3 MR. SHERMAN: I now understand, Your Honor.

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

5 MR. SHERMAN: I think that, however, there are a
6 number of objections on -- that complaint counsel has --
7 and we can discuss these off the record if that's more
8 appropriate, too -- to our exhibits, which a lot of 9 which will be resolved by bringing in witnesses live,
10 bringing in the witnesses that we intend to bring in 11 live.

12 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So we're still talking about
13 your objection to their exhibits.

14 MR. SHERMAN: Her objections to my exhibits.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I was going to get to that. I
16 forgot to mention that.

17 What about your objection to their exhibits?

18 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That weren't on Exhibit A.

20 MS. VANDRUFF: Certainly.

21 And what I can tell Your Honor is that we have 22 been prepared to meet and confer with respondent with 23 respect to our objections to respondent's exhibits for 24 some time, but this has been a discussion that, as 25 Mr. Sherman described for you, he thought was

1 warrant-based search, a legal search? Any dispute
2 there?

3 MS. VANDRUFF: There's no dispute about that,
4 Your Honor.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: They find in there the people
6 they're targeting, maybe serving an arrest warrant as 7 well; correct?

8 MR. SHERMAN: No, they were not. It was a
9 probation search. I think Mr. --

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Someone is on probation, a very 11 relaxed standard. Okay. But anyway, while there, they 12 found --

13 MR. SHERMAN: He's a known drug addict,
14 Your Honor.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: -- they found some documents
16 and some of them were what we call day sheets.

17 MS. VANDRUFF: That's right, Your Honor. The 18 documents had the LabMD insignia on them.

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right.

20 So getting back to where we are when we take a
21 break, that's the objection to the specific document.
22 Then you're aware of what you need to do to talk about
23 any other documents that were not on Exhibit A, for 24 example, whether she's going to have a sponsoring
25 witness, et cetera.

1 inappropriate prior to the presentation of proof, so we
2 have not had an opportunity to --

3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, this is his first trip to 4 this rodeo, so I'm not holding that against him.

5 MS. VANDRUFF: I understand.

6 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So let's forget about the 7 attempt to meet and confer. Let's move on.

8 MS. VANDRUFF: Okay. What would you like to 9 hear from us, Your Honor?

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Are you prepared to put your 11 documents in categories so you can talk about what's 12 remaining after the break?

13 MS. VANDRUFF: Absolutely, Your Honor.

14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. And eventually those 15 documents that are agreed to that are not now on 16 Exhibit A you'll need to put into another exhibit.

17 We'll have yet another joint exhibit, perhaps 18 Joint Exhibit 2, that will contain the documents you're 19 going to agree to today. Okay?

20 Anything else on the objected-to exhibits?

21 MR. SHERMAN: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

22 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let me talk about deposition
24 designations.

25 Let me make sure I'm correct on this. We have 37

39

1 Exhibit A is going to be JX 1, and a new list of
2 documents that I expect you to agree to will be JX 2.
3 And by the end of the day, I think you may need
4 to resubmit your joint stipulation with the changes I'm 5 telling you I'm not -- the items I'm not accepting in 6 your paragraph 2 of that stipulation.

7 MS. VANDRUFF: May I be heard, Your Honor?

8 With respect to the stipulation, you're talking
9 about the stipulation --

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: For Exhibit A.

11 MS. VANDRUFF: -- on the admissibility of 12 exhibits; is that correct?

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Right.

14 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I think you asked your question
16 because you had submitted another -- previously a
17 stipulation on facts; correct?

18 MS. VANDRUFF: That's correct, Your Honor. The 19 parties yesterday submitted a joint stipulation of law,
20 facts and authenticity.

21 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That can be JX 1.

22 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor. That is how it
23 is marked.

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And then what we can do with 25 the exhibits, since I'm going to probably have you

1 delineate complaint counsel's designations, respondent's
2 designations, and where there's overlap a separate color
3 for that. We think that that would be most efficient
4 for Your Honor to review the evidence that's been 5 designated.

6 MR. SHERMAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

7 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And as a matter of fact,
8 although the rules talk about deposition designations,
9 and therefore I've got that in my scheduling order,
10 additional provisions I believe, the rules also now
11 clearly allow deposition transcripts to be admitted, so
12 I would prefer, submit the entire deposition transcript,
13 and then you're in effect designating what you want to 14 use in your posttrial briefs.

15 At that time, when you respond to that brief,
16 make any objection you want to make, and I'll deal with 17 it accordingly. Because I'm not going to hear
18 objections to depositions or deposition designations
19 today because I find a lot of those get lost and by the 20 time we're at the end of the trial very few of them come
21 up again.

22 So just so everybody is clear, submit the 23 entire deposition transcript for any witness whose 24 testimony you want to submit by deposition, meaning
25 those that have been designated. When we get to

1 withdraw your other stipulation since I'm not agreeing
2 to the terms, then what we might do is have a JX 2 that
3 includes Exhibit A plus what's agreed to today. Okay?

4 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor. Thank you.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And at this time I'm going to 6 admit JX 1 into the record, so that's done with.

7 (Joint Exhibit Number 1 was admitted into 8 evidence.)

9 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Deposition designations.

10 Based on what's been filed with OALJ, I can't 11 tell if complaint counsel did or did not designate only 12 specific lines of testimony it seeks to introduce. In 13 the final proposed exhibit list, complaint counsel
14 listed various deposition transcripts as proposed
15 exhibits.

16 Respondent submitted under a counter-designation
17 list -- or they submitted a counter-designation list
18 which lists the entire deposition.

19 Are there other submissions relating to 20 deposition designations that I'm not aware of?

21 MS. VANDRUFF: May I be heard, Your Honor?

22 So with respect to the deposition designations,
23 the parties, in an effort to maximize efficiency, we 24 have come to an agreement to submit to the court, with 25 Your Honor's permission, marked-up transcripts that

1 posttrial briefing, if you want to cite to a depo, then
2 you designate what you're referring to in your proposed
3 finding. And then the other side, if they wish to 4 object to that, they can do that in their reply to the 5 proposed finding.

6 MS. VANDRUFF: May I ask a question,
7 Your Honor?

8 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes.

9 MS. VANDRUFF: With respect to the designations
10 the parties have already exchanged, am I correct in 11 understanding that you do not wish to see those 12 designations; is that correct?

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I would prefer to see, if it's 14 John Brown's designation, just submit the whole
15 deposition.

16 MS. VANDRUFF: The entire transcript.

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Right.

18 MS. VANDRUFF: Unmarked, unannotated.

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What I'm saying is, I've got 20 your designations I've seen filed, but what's important
21 to me is what you want to urge at the end of the case in 22 your posttrial brief, in your proposed findings.

23 So what I'm saying is, you're not disallowed
24 from using any designation you want. I'm not going to 25 make that ruling today.

43

1 So hopefully this is clear. If you want to use
2 any deposition testimony in this case in your posttrial
3 briefing to support any point or cause, submit the 4 entire transcript. How's that?

5 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

6 MR. SHERMAN: That's good, Your Honor.

7 And just for clarity, complaint counsel served
8 us late last night with specific objections to our
9 deposition designations, and I -- in my mind, what you
10 just said, your ruling here makes those moot.

11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes. I have found over time
12 that the way I just described it some moments ago is the 13 best way to deal with this, because I could sit here and 14 rule on these objections for days, but a lot of them are 15 going away anyway by the time this is done. When we get
16 to that final briefing, you're looking at the trial
17 transcript, and a lot of it goes away. That's why it's 18 more efficient just to wait and deal with it in a
19 posttrial brief.

20 And nobody is harmed there, nobody is
21 prejudiced, because everybody knows what we're doing.
22 It's out in the open.

23 Any objection to me doing it that way?

24 MR. SHERMAN: Absolutely not.

25 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

42

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let's talk about in camera
2 issues.

3 I don't know if you noticed when you walked in,
4 we've got a sign out there. And when the parties
5 request it, we'll go into in camera session, and then
6 I'll remove everyone from the courtroom who's not
7 subject to the protective order. And we have a sign we 8 will turn to keep people from wandering in.

9 And our bailiff Ironsides, he is the enforcer.
10 Ironsides will make sure no one comes in who's not
11 supposed to be here during an in camera session.

12 I saw three joint motions for in camera
13 treatment. By orders dated May 6, 2014, permanent
14 in camera treatment was granted to exhibits
15 containing sensitive personal information and also 16 in camera treatment for a period of six years to the 17 fraud survey questions of Mr. Van Dyke and 18 Javelin Strategy & Research.

19 On May 14, I saw an additional motion for 20 in camera treatment seeking permanent in camera
21 treatment for one exhibit containing sensitive personal
22 information. I'm going to grant that motion, and an 23 order will issue shortly regarding that.

24 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

25 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let's talk about how we're

1 going to proceed in here with in camera information if
2 you haven't been here before.

3 You're instructed to be aware of the documents
4 and any information derived from those documents that
5 have been granted in camera treatment. If you wish to 6 question a witness about that document or that
7 information, you need to ask me, you need to request to 8 move into an in camera session. At that point I will 9 clear the courtroom of persons who are not authorized to 10 be in here.

11 And in keeping with the least amount of 12 disruption possible, you shall segregate your 13 questioning, your examining of witnesses, so that any 14 section on in camera materials is grouped together so
15 that I'm not clearing the courtroom and bringing people
16 back in more than necessary.

17 I have found that the best way to do this,
18 whoever calls the witness reserves in camera issues
19 until the end of their examination, and then the person
20 conducting cross-exam conducts their in camera portion
21 of questioning at the beginning of their examination.

22 In addition, counsel shall instruct witnesses to
23 ensure they do not disclose in camera testimony in open
24 session. We really don't want anything bleated out by a
25 witness who may or may not know what's in camera.

1 Any questions on how we're going to handle
2 in camera info?

4 MR. SHERMAN: No, Your Honor.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Ironsides, can you come up when
6 you get a minute.

7 I have a pending motion filed by respondent on
8 May 2, 2014 seeking to limit the relevant time period
9 concerning adequacy of respondent's data security
10 practices.

11 Now, it may appear that I'm reading to you, but 12 I'm going to make a bench ruling, so I am going to be 13 reading from my script here.

14 So the motion involves adequacy of respondent's
15 data security practices to the time period analyzed by 16 Dr. Raquel Hill, complaint counsel's proffered expert,
17 which is January 2005 to July of 2010.

18 Respondent is questioning what is the relevant
19 time period and seeks not only to limit Dr. Hill's 20 testimony to this time period, 2005 to 2010, but also to 21 exclude any other witness from the FTC from providing
22 evidence concerning adequacy of LabMD's security
23 practices after July 2010.

24 Complaint counsel filed an opposition on May 13,
25 2014 and acknowledged Dr. Hill's report and her opinions

47

1 are limited to the time period January 2005 through
2 July 2010, and complaint counsel agrees it will not
3 elicit testimony from Dr. Hill outside of that time
4 frame.

5 However, complaint counsel argues, simply
6 because Dr. Hill's opinion is limited does not mean
7 complaint counsel is precluded from presenting other
8 evidence concerning the adequacy of respondent's data
9 after July 2010.

10 Complaint counsel also argues that evidence of 11 the data security practices after July 2010 and through 12 the end of discovery remains relevant to the 13 allegations in the complaint and the proposed
14 injunctive remedy.

15 Complaint counsel also notes that the motion is 16 untimely because respondent failed to file by
17 April 22, 2014, the deadline for motions in limine
18 covered by the scheduling order.

19 I've reviewed the parties' filings and fully
20 considered the issue. This is my ruling.

21 Respondent's motion is untimely under the
22 scheduling order, and there appears to be no
23 justification for the failure to file it before the 24 deadline, given that the expert report was served on or 25 about March 18, 2014. However, that's not why I'm going

1 16 days each.

2 As I instructed the parties at the initial
3 conference, the parties are charged with keeping track
4 of the time allotted.

5 Have you developed a system?

6 MR. SHERMAN: I have not, Your Honor. But we
7 will do so prior to the beginning of the hearing.

8 MS. VANDRUFF: Correct, Your Honor. We will
9 work with respondent's counsel to do that.

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And it's not required if you
11 are absolutely sure we will come under the wire and not 12 need the full amount of time, which I would encourage if 13 possible.

14 Let's talk about trial dates.

15 Because we all have numerous other matters to 16 attend to, we generally will be in court four days a
17 week. Normally that's going to be a Monday or Friday
18 out of court to better accommodate those from out of 19 town.

20 I have the following dates that I'm blocking as 21 of today:

22 May 26, which is a holiday.

23 June 2.

24 June 9.

25 June 16.

46

48

1 to overrule your motion or deny your motion.

2 Respondent has failed to demonstrate that
3 evidence of respondent's data security practices during 4 the time period after July 2010 and through the end of 5 discovery is not relevant and clearly inadmissible for
6 all purposes, which is our motion in limine standard.
7 At a minimum, this later time period is relevant to the 8 proposed relief in this case.

9 Accordingly, respondent's motion to limit
10 evidence to the time frame of complaint counsel's expert
11 report is denied.

12 However, Dr. Hill's testimony is limited to the 13 opinions expressed in her report and thus to the time
14 period January 2005 through July 2010.

15 Any questions?

16 MR. SHERMAN: None whatsoever, Your Honor.

17 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor. Thank you.

18 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let's talk about trial timing.

19 Pursuant to rule 3.41(b), this hearing is 20 limited to no more than 210 hours. Assuming 21 six-and-a-half-hour days, which generally we have after 22 our breaks are taken out, this equates to about 32 total
23 days of trial.

24 Under that same rule, 3.41(b)(4), each side is 25 allotted no more than half of the time. That's about

1 June 23.

2 Those are all Mondays. If we are still in trial
3 beyond those dates, we will revisit scheduling. And I
4 can tell you, if we're still here in July, which I hope
5 we're not, we also will not be here July 14.

6 Do the parties have any particular dates you
7 need to line out that you're aware of today?

8 Let's start with respondent.

9 MR. SHERMAN: I am not aware of them today. Is 10 it possible, however, Your Honor, that we could be given
11 an opportunity to check on dates and submit that to the 12 court -- I don't know how many --

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: How long do you need?

14 I mean, is this today or is this --

15 MR. SHERMAN: Oh, absolutely, I can do it by the 16 end of the day. But --

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I generally am not going to put 18 this in a written motion.

19 MR. SHERMAN: I want to stay married.

20 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That's a worthy goal, so...

21 Are you aware of any dates you think you need
22 off?

23 MS. VANDRUFF: Given the schedule that
24 Your Honor just described, then no, Your Honor, we don't
25 anticipate there being any issues on our side.

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Generally there's at least one
2 wedding between everybody involved, but hopefully not
3 this time.

4 This is what we'll do. You are aware of the 5 e-mail address OALJ?

6 MR. SHERMAN: I am.

7 JUDGE CHAPPELL: By the end of the day, if you
8 think you need a day off, tell me why and tell me what
9 day it is. Otherwise, I'll assume we have nothing
10 further to deal with there. Okay?

11 MR. SHERMAN: And I will copy complaint counsel
12 on anything submitted to the court in --

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes. Anything to OALJ needs to 14 go to everyone.

15 Opening statements.

16 Each side is permitted to make an opening
17 statement that's no more than two hours in duration.

18 I'd like to hear from the parties as to how much
19 time you think you will need for your opening.

20 MS. VANDRUFF: Your Honor, for complaint counsel
21 we think 90 minutes or thereabouts.

22 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

23 MR. SHERMAN: Half that time probably.

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Excellent.

25 MR. SHERMAN: Maybe an hour.

1 MR. SHERMAN: I think we will know rather
2 quickly whether or not we can agree or agree to 3 disagree.

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. Then when we come
5 back, I will get an update, and then if there are still
6 objections, I'll hear them at that time.

7 And also I'm going to resolve the objection over
8 the exhibit about Social Security numbers.

9 Anything further before we recess?

10 MR. SHERMAN: Nothing, further, Your Honor.

11 MS. VANDRUFF: Nothing further, Your Honor.
12 Thank you.

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

14 Okay. We will reconvene at 1:00 p.m.

15 We're in recess.

16 (Recess)

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Back on the record.

18 I'm going to set aside for now the issue of 19 CX 451.

20 Let's get back to the exhibits and objections
21 thereto for those documents that were not previously 22 agreed to.

23 Have the parties been able to work out some 24 agreement or arrangement?

25 MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, we have.

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

2 At this time I'm going to give the parties
3 time -- you'll be given time to work together on 4 narrowing the objections regarding the exhibits as we
5 discussed some moments ago.

6 And be advised, I'm not looking for a final
7 joint exhibit today. Hopefully the meetings will be
8 fruitful. And I will need that final joint exhibit
9 let's say 10:00 when we reconvene on Tuesday, and then I
10 can accept an offer of it at that time.

11 And you're probably aware that when you offer a 12 joint exhibit there needs to be no signature line for 13 the judge. If I accept it, it will be admitted; if I
14 don't, you'll know why and you'll need to resubmit it.

15 How much time do you think you need to talk
16 about exhibits?

17 MS. VANDRUFF: I would hope, Your Honor, that we 18 could resolve this relatively quickly, but I'm looking 19 to Mr. Sherman.

20 MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, we've usually been 21 able to work pretty cooperatively together. Half an 22 hour would --

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I don't want to rush -- what if 24 I say we'll reconvene at 1:00?

25 MS. VANDRUFF: That would be fine by us.

1 This previously was the list of
2 exhibits (indicating). It was several pages that they
3 were objecting to, and I'm proud to say we're down to 4 four.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Four pages or four exhibits?

6 MR. SHERMAN: Four exhibits.

7 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That's better.

8 All right. And what about --

9 MS. VANDRUFF: And Your Honor, I think that what 10 Mr. Sherman is representing is that of all of the 11 parties' exhibits that there are four outstanding
12 objections as well as the objection that you heard
13 argument on this morning with respect to CX 451.

14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And are those documents that 15 are in one category or are they --

16 MS. VANDRUFF: There are two categories,
17 Your Honor. These are respondent's exhibits to which 18 complaint counsel objects, and the categories are 19 twofold. One, affidavits that were submitted by 20 witnesses who either will testify live or have been 21 deposed, and one of those affidavits contains an 22 opinion.

23 And the second is the requests for admission,
24 that you granted a motion for complaint counsel to amend
25 that document, respondent would like to keep the prior

PUBLIC

55

1 responses as an exhibit.

2 So those are the two categories.

3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. So all of these are
4 documents being offered by respondent?

5 MR. SHERMAN: That's correct, Your Honor.

6 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So let me hear your offer and 7 your legal basis.

8 MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, we have three
9 affidavits. All of them are from prior employees of 10 LabMD with regard to LabMD's data security practices,
11 policies and procedures that were in place during the 12 relevant time period.

13 These affidavits were submitted to complaint
14 counsel I think during part of their investigation, and 15 they were submitted in May of 2011.

16 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Are any of these witnesses
17 going to testify?

18 MR. SHERMAN: We are hopeful that John Boyle,
19 who is in Denver, will be able to come out and testify.

20 We're hopeful that Allen Truett, who is in 21 Atlanta, will be able to come out and testify.

22 Chris Maire will not be asked to come live.

23 Complaint counsel has --

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: How many affidavits are there?

25 MR. SHERMAN: Excuse me?

1 that are addressed in the affidavits, to the extent

2 that respondent wishes to introduce that evidence to

3 this court, it should do so through the testimony of

4 those witnesses, not through these out-of-court

5 statements.

6 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Are you going to continue your
7 objection if the witness takes the stand?

8 MS. VANDRUFF: To the admission of the 9 declaration or to the facts that are in the 10 declaration --

11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: To the exhibit. If the witness
12 takes the stand, are you still going to maintain your 13 objection?

14 MS. VANDRUFF: It would be complaint counsel's
15 position, Your Honor, that the testimony should be 16 elicited if the witness is present in the courtroom as 17 opposed to the document received as the witness'
18 testimony.

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And I'll ask you, Mr. Sherman,
20 why do you need the affidavit if the witness testifies?

21 MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, I may not need the 22 affidavit if the witness testifies, but as I said

23 before, these witnesses are -- one is in Denver. One is 24 in Atlanta. We're in contact with them. Final

25 arrangements have not been made for their travel. It is

54

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What's the total affidavits?

2 MR. SHERMAN: Three.

3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Three?

4 MR. SHERMAN: Three affidavits.

5 And they basically go through what these
6 individuals knew and had personal knowledge of with
7 regard to LabMD's policies, practices, procedures,
8 hardware, software, configurations, and things of that 9 nature.

10 Complaint counsel has had the opportunity to 11 cross-examine these witnesses after the receipt of these 12 affidavits, and we believe that should -- these 13 affidavits are not -- they're not a surprise, the 14 information in them is not a surprise, and that they
15 should be in fact admitted into evidence.

16 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. Response?

17 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 So the three affidavits, it is true that we've 19 had them for some time, and it is also true that the 20 witnesses have been deposed.

21 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What's your objection?

22 MS. VANDRUFF: Our objection is that they are 23 rank hearsay, Your Honor. They are being offered for 24 the truth of the matter asserted.

25 The testimony -- or I should say the matters

1 our hope and our intent that they are here.

2 And for that purpose, I would -- and I don't
3 know how --

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: You mean you don't control the 5 witnesses you're calling?

6 I mean, when I hear things like "my hope and my
7 intent," I mean, aren't they LabMD witnesses?

8 MR. SHERMAN: They are witnesses that have
9 information that would be beneficial to LabMD, but 10 they've moved on with their lives. They're in other 11 cities.

12 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Former employees.

13 MR. SHERMAN: Former employees.

14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, don't put them in 15 Motel 6.

16 MR. SHERMAN: One is a former third-party
17 provider, Mr. Truett.

18 JUDGE CHAPPELL: But any of those people now in 19 competition with LabMD?

20 MR. SHERMAN: I don't think anybody is in 21 competition with LabMD given their current state of 22 business affairs.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. So just to narrow it
24 down, we have three affidavits, two of people who you
25 plan to have appear live, one who we know no one is

1 appearing.

2 MR. SHERMAN: That's correct. Chris Maire.

3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So address that one.

4 MS. VANDRUFF: With respect to Mr. Maire,
5 Your Honor, he was deposed, and so to the extent that
6 his testimony should be admissible, it should be the 7 testimony that he offered at deposition that was subject
8 to cross-examination as opposed to the out-of-court
9 statement that respondent would like to offer for the 10 truth of the matter.

11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Was the information in the 12 affidavit not covered in the deposition?

13 MR. SHERMAN: I don't think it was covered as 14 cogently and succinctly as it is in the affidavit,
15 Your Honor.

16 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What came first, the depo or 17 the affidavit?

18 MR. SHERMAN: The affidavit. The affidavit came 19 first.

20 And I mean, if I could, you know, assist the 21 court with section 3.43, which indicates that you may 22 make a finding upon the motion of a party to have these 23 exhibits admitted such that the prior testimony not be 24 duplicative, would not present unnecessary hardship to 25 any party or delay to the proceedings and would aid the

58

1 determination of the matter. Statements or testimony by
2 a party opponent if relevant shall be admitted.

3 I submit that these are --

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: But that's actually used by the 5 government against respondent. We're talking about an
6 affidavit by your own client. The party opponent rule
7 doesn't apply to your own people.

8 MR. SHERMAN: Very well. But I would submit
9 that these statements are relevant. They do not present
10 any hardship.

11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, we're past relevance. We 12 need reliability.

13 MR. SHERMAN: And I believe that they are
14 reliable. They are sworn statements.

15 These statements have been used in other
16 litigation to support motions. In fact, the -- is it
17 Northern District of Atlanta -- of Georgia -- I'm 18 sorry -- these affidavits were also used, so --

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let me ask this.

20 Do you think -- are there details in these 21 affidavits you don't like, or is this a matter of 22 principle objection because they're hearsay? I'm trying
23 to find some common ground here.

24 MS. VANDRUFF: No, no, I understand. Certainly 25 this is a principle objection.

PUBLIC

59

1 If I may, there's one additional issue that we
2 have that I have not had the opportunity to raise with
3 Your Honor, which is, with respect to one of the 4 declarations or affidavits that is of Mr. Truett, whom
5 Mr. Sherman has described as a former contractor for 6 LabMD, I think arguably one of the paragraphs of his
7 affidavit also provides an opinion, and so it should not
8 be admitted on that separate ground because he has not
9 been designated as an expert witness.

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Tell me specifically what that 11 opinion is.

12 MS. VANDRUFF: Certainly.

13 Paragraph 9 of his affidavit concludes that the 14 security measures taken by LabMD were consistent with 15 those used by other customers of a similar size and 16 security needs profile.

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So it sounds like you've got
18 yourself an opinion there. What do you have to say?

19 MR. SHERMAN: Well, I would just say that all
20 lay opinion is not necessarily inadmissible.

21 He is in fact basing that on his experience as 22 a -- one who provides data security for any of a variety
23 of companies. And his testimony, as he was 24 cross-examined or examined in his deposition, he was 25 asked about how many medical-type companies he provided

60

1 this service to, and he basically said, you know, it was
2 a high percentage of his business, maybe 60 or
3 70 percent of his customers.

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Isn't that the same thing you
5 were objecting to with Mr. Johnson?

6 MR. SHERMAN: I don't think so, Your Honor,
7 because what they are asking Mr. Johnson to do is to 8 give an opinion which is very consistent with what 9 their experts have given an opinion as to, which is the 10 likelihood of harm or the type of harm that was likely 11 to occur, which goes directly to the proof in their 12 case.

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let me ask this.

14 What if you take a black marker to it and you
15 excise certain portions of the affidavit? Is there any 16 chance of an agreement if certain things are redacted,
17 including what I consider to be a lay opinion right
18 now?

19 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor, for that.

20 It would remain complaint counsel's position
21 that the affidavits should not be admitted because they 22 constitute rank hearsay. But to the extent that they 23 are admitted, we certainly would take the position that 24 the lay opinions as we've held should not be admitted on 25 that separate ground.

63

1 MR. SHERMAN: In terms of I think it's
2 paragraph 9, we wouldn't object to it being redacted
3 from the affidavit.

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And you still would renew your
5 objection without paragraph 9.

6 MS. VANDRUFF: We would, Your Honor.

7 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay. Anything else on the
8 affidavits?

9 MR. SHERMAN: No, Your Honor.

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. Then what's left?

11 MS. VANDRUFF: Your Honor, there's one other
12 document that's left, and that is respondent's
13 initial -- excuse me -- complaint counsel's initial 14 responses to requests for admission.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And it's whose document?

16 MS. VANDRUFF: Sorry. Respondent wishes to --

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: They're offering it?

18 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor.

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Go ahead.

20 MR. SHERMAN: Your Honor, it's the initial
21 responses to requests for admissions. And we believe 22 that what it reflects is the cavalier attitude that the 23 government has had about this case all along, that,
24 you know, they don't have to answer requests for 25 admissions, they don't have to give us a 3.33 witness,

1 discovery responses against you, do you think it's fair
2 to hold against your client what you as an attorney may
3 have done?

4 MR. SHERMAN: I do not, Judge.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Then how is this different?

6 MR. SHERMAN: Well --

7 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Because they're attorneys
8 representing the FTC.

9 MR. SHERMAN: Well, that's right. But I think
10 it's different because I believe that the government
11 should be held to a higher standard.

12 And when you're representing the United States
13 government, you have more power than any other litigant
14 in our judicial system, and that power should be wielded
15 I think with a lot of discretion, and it should not be
16 cavalierly thrown about to make the lives and the work
17 of the attorneys and the other litigants on the other
18 side more difficult than they have to be.

19 I think we've had to file motions that in 20 any -- in an Article III court would have been -- I
21 think sanctions may have been levied. But I think that 22 this document reflects that attitude, and I believe
23 that it should be admissible and it should be admitted.

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Are there other discovery
25 response documents that are agreed to as exhibits?

1 and if they do, they don't have to identify him. They
2 don't have to give us standards.

3 When the FTC represents the United States
4 government, Your Honor, and in terms of the initial
5 responses, they pretty much just refused to admit
6 anything, even facts that were clear on their face that 7 they should have admitted -- now, they later go back and 8 even in their -- even in their amended admissions, they 9 couch them in long objections and at the very end they
10 finally admit to the proposed admission.

11 And so I think it's relevant when the FTC
12 representing the government puts their witness on the 13 stand that they be asked to explain why, you know, this 14 was the manner in which they chose not only to 15 investigate this particular incident but how they chose 16 to give information as it relates to discovery, how they 17 fought us tooth and nail for everything we've basically
18 asked for. And this is just an example of it,
19 Your Honor.

20 And I think that it's an exhibit that can be
21 used to impeach Mr. Kaufman should he get on the stand
22 and say something that's inconsistent with it.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let me ask you this.

24 If the shoe were on the other foot, if you had 25 answered discovery and the government wanted to use your

1 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor, there are.

2 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Is it everything but this one?

3 MR. SHERMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

4 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. That's his offer.
5 What's your objection?

6 MS. VANDRUFF: Our objection, Your Honor, is 7 that when the concerns of respondent were brought to the 8 attention of complaint counsel that we immediately moved 9 to amend our --

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, let's talk about how the 11 requests for admission response, the previous one, is to 12 be treated differently than any other, the one that came
13 before it, the one that came after it, why is it
14 different than the later -- I think you've said you
15 amended it -- why would that be treated differently, if 16 you agreed to other discovery documents being in 17 evidence as exhibits.

18 MS. VANDRUFF: Okay. I think I understand your 19 question, Your Honor, and please correct me if I'm 20 addressing the wrong issue.

21 But with respect to other discovery responses
22 that are on respondent's exhibit list to which we have 23 no objection, it's because they have not been superseded
24 by subsequent responses by complaint counsel.

25 Here, we sought the leave of Your Honor to amend

65

67

1 our discovery responses, and that was granted, and so to
2 the extent that the prior responses are probative of 3 anything, it's not probative of any claim, defense or 4 relief.

5 Indeed, the purposes for which Mr. Sherman just
6 described using them I don't think are proper before
7 Your Honor with respect to why or how decisions were 8 made by complaint counsel either in the investigation or 9 discovery in this matter.

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So your legal basis for your
11 objection is the document is not probative.

12 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor. We don't think 13 it's probative of any claim, defense or relief in this 14 answer.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And your legal basis for your 16 theory of admissibility is what again?

17 MR. SHERMAN: It's a sworn statement,
18 Your Honor. Requests for admissions are sworn 19 statements. It was submitted to the court. It was 20 filed.

21 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What pending issue that needs
22 to be determined is it relevant to?

23 MR. SHERMAN: I'm not sure --

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: On the merits of what issue is 25 it relevant to?

1 reasoning.

2 MR. SHERMAN: I'm not questioning the court's
3 reasoning on any of the motions or the orders that have 4 been ruled upon.

5 What I said here is that --

6 JUDGE CHAPPELL: What I'm saying is --

7 MR. SHERMAN: -- this issue is --

8 JUDGE CHAPPELL: -- I don't know that the ruling
9 on that issue to make -- to force the government I guess
10 to modify that response, I'm not sure what you're 11 looking for isn't contained in that order that dealt
12 with the very issue.

13 Did I not make a ruling on this issue requiring 14 an amendment?

15 MR. SHERMAN: You did. You did. And they
16 amended it. But the fact that there needed to be a
17 motion filed on requests for admissions --

18 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And that motion is in the 19 record.

20 MR. SHERMAN: It is.

21 MS. VANDRUFF: Your Honor, if I may, may I just 22 revisit the procedural history here, because I want to
23 make sure there's no misunderstanding with the court.

24 But there was a motion filed by counsel for 25 respondent without having met and conferred with us.

1 MR. SHERMAN: I'm not sure that it goes
2 directly to any one particular issue. I do believe
3 that it is reflective of generally what's going on in 4 this case.

5 And broadly what's going on in this case -- and
6 people may disagree about it -- is that the 7 Federal Trade Commission is seeking to expand its
8 authority to govern, to regulate and to enforce data
9 security as it relates to personal identifying 10 information, and it will stop at nothing to do this.

11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: You think what's going on in 12 this case hasn't been appropriately documented in the 13 public orders that have been issued.

14 MR. SHERMAN: I think it's been -- I think it's 15 been appropriately documented. Right? I believe that 16 this document --

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: By the way, when I say "what's 18 going on in this case," I don't mean one side or the 19 other.

20 MR. SHERMAN: I understand.

21 JUDGE CHAPPELL: But there are orders that have
22 been issued dealing with discovery issues that explain
23 how we got there and what we're arguing about and why
24 certain rulings have been made. I don't ever issue an 25 order without reasoning, background, arguments and

1 Immediately upon receipt of that motion, we
2 moved to amend our responses as well as opposing their
3 motion to deem as admitted.

4 And the ruling of the court was to allow our
5 amendments and to deny as moot their request to deem as
6 admitted.

7 So I just wanted to clarify that for the
8 record.

9 MR. SHERMAN: That's accurate.

10 Your Honor, we did not meet and confer because 11 we were not asking complaint counsel to do anything. We 12 were asking the court to rule that the -- that their 13 responses be deemed admissions.

14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Well, I understand you want to 15 defend your position, but there's no need. That's long 16 past. We're past all that.

17 MR. SHERMAN: I understand.

18 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let me have the exhibit
19 numbers. What are the exhibit numbers of the 20 affidavits?

21 MS. VANDRUFF: Certainly, Your Honor. And I can
22 hand up copies if that would be helpful.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I just want the numbers.

24 MS. VANDRUFF: Certainly, Your Honor. It is
25 RX 313, 314, which contains the opinion of Mr. Truett,

1 and RX 315.

2 Then with respect to the requests for admission,
3 the initial responses to the requests for admission,
4 that appears at RX 520.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And does that exhibit contain
6 the full discovery response or just the one RFA?

7 MS. VANDRUFF: It contains the full discovery
8 response, Your Honor. With respect to the requests for 9 admissions of course.

10 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Is your objection just to the 11 one RFA or the entire exhibit?

12 MS. VANDRUFF: Well, the entire exhibit,
13 Your Honor, is superseded by our amended RFAs which 14 address --

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And remember, I don't read
16 these unless there's a dispute and they're attached to a
17 motion.

18 So did you then file an entirely new response to 19 the request for admissions?

20 MS. VANDRUFF: We did, Your Honor, that
21 addressed every request for admission from respondent.
22 That's correct.

23 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And again, your objection is to 24 the whole thing or just the one RFA?

25 MS. VANDRUFF: Our objection is to the whole

1 thing.

2 There were several RFAs that we amended -- I'm
3 sorry -- several responses to respondent's requests for
4 admission that were amended in our subsequent RFA
5 answers, and so we think that allowing the prior
6 answers, which have been superseded by Your Honor's
7 ruling, serves no purpose. It's not probative of any
8 fact in dispute in this case.

9 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So the next iteration, the 10 amended RFAs, those are an exhibit.

11 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor.

12 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Anything further?

13 MR. SHERMAN: Nothing further, Your Honor.

14 MS. VANDRUFF: No, Your Honor.

15 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And you have copies of the 16 affidavits?

17 MS. VANDRUFF: I do, Your Honor. Would it be 18 helpful for me to approach and hand these up?

19 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes.

20 MS. VANDRUFF: May I approach?

21 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes.

22 You know what, just hand them to Ms. Arthaud.

23 MS. VANDRUFF: Certainly.

24 (Pause in the proceedings.)

25 Your Honor, would you like the RFAs as well?

PUBLIC

71

1 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes. Leave her a copy.

2 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So those four exhibits are the 4 only exhibits that we have a dispute over; is that 5 correct?

6 MR. SHERMAN: That's correct.

7 MS. VANDRUFF: As well as the exhibit that --

8 JUDGE CHAPPELL: 451. In addition.

9 MS. VANDRUFF: Correct, Your Honor.

10 And I wanted to ask Your Honor if I may be 11 heard.

12 That, Your Honor didn't have an opportunity to 13 review. We would be happy to display it. It is a large
14 document. It is also subject to your in camera motion,
15 but if it would be useful to the court in ruling on 16 Mr. Sherman's oral motion, we are prepared to display it
17 if that would be helpful.

18 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I have a pretty good idea of 19 the spreadsheet. I don't need to see that.

20 MS. VANDRUFF: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor.

21 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. We're going to take
22 a short recess. We'll reconvene at 2:15.

23 (Recess)

24 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Let's go back on the record.

25 So we know this, starting on Tuesday, I'll need

72

1 everybody to speak up a little bit and lean closer to
2 the microphones. I'm having trouble hearing especially
3 your side (indicating).

4 MS. VANDRUFF: Very well, Your Honor.

5 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And if anyone can't hear me,
6 let me know. I tend to push this away because it rings
7 sometimes and we don't want the ringing
8 noise (indicating).

9 Let me deal with, first of all, the motions to 10 quash. I'm waiting on a response to one of those. That 11 will be today.

12 MR. SHERMAN: Yes, sir.

13 JUDGE CHAPPELL: So I'm not going to be able to 14 get those rulings out today.

15 However, because those parties are obligated to 16 be here on the 20th, I expect someone who issued those 17 subpoenas to inform those parties or their attorneys
18 they will not have to be here before May 27, pending a
19 ruling on these motions.

20 Someone take care of that?

21 MR. SHERMAN: Yes, sir.

22 JUDGE CHAPPELL: I'm basing that on the fact
23 that I'm assuming that your case will take at least next
24 week for the government?

25 MS. VANDRUFF: Yes, Your Honor. We believe that 73

75

1 our case will take three to four days.

2 JUDGE CHAPPELL: And if we get lucky and they
3 are finished, you wouldn't call these two witnesses in 4 the beginning of your case, would you?

5 MR. SHERMAN: No, I would not, as I've said over
6 and over again to them and their attorneys that I would
7 work with them to accommodate their schedules as best I
8 could.

9 JUDGE CHAPPELL: That part was left out of the 10 motions, as I recall. Okay?

11 MR. SHERMAN: It's a fact.

12 JUDGE CHAPPELL: All right. Let's talk about 13 these exhibits.

14 Let me start with the affidavits, RX 313, 314,
15 315.

16 Those are clearly out-of-court statements
17 offered for the truth of the matter asserted without 18 sufficient indicia of reliability.

19 The deposition transcripts are in the record,
20 and two of the affiants are expected to appear to 21 testify.

22 Those exhibits are not admitted.

23 And if it helps, I've never admitted an
24 affidavit as long as I've been here as far as I know.

25 MR. SHERMAN: I don't take it personally,

1 the government has the opportunity to call Mr. Wilmer
2 and reoffer CX 451 and attempt to lay a proper
3 foundation, at which time respondent will then be able
4 to test the reliability under cross-examination.

5 Any questions on those rulings?

6 MS. VANDRUFF: Just one, Your Honor.

7 If I may, earlier today we represented that we
8 would be calling four live witnesses. In light of 9 Your Honor's ruling, we may reconsider that with 10 Your Honor's permission.

11 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Oh, no. You said four 12 certainly. I'm not holding you to that.

13 MS. VANDRUFF: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Yes. If I did that, trials
15 would go a lot quicker, but...

16 Oh, let's talk about the elevator. I want
17 everybody to know that during the repair of the 18 elevators in the back of the building that I and my 19 staff normally use, we are using an elevator, it's not 20 where you are, but it's just around the corner, so I can 21 hear things.

22 So please be advised and tell everybody, don't 23 talk about the case in the elevator lobby and especially 24 don't disparage the judge in the elevator lobby, because 25 I don't want to hear anything I shouldn't hear in the

74

1 Your Honor.

2 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

3 RFA RX 520.

4 After hearing the argument and considering both
5 sides, my finding is that respondents have not offered a
6 sufficient legal basis for admissibility to overcome the 7 objection of the government. Therefore, RX 520 is not
8 admitted.

9 However, I do note, I believe the issues that
10 respondent raised have been documented in the pleadings
11 and orders that have been issued in this case.

12 Let's talk about CX 451, the Wilmer
13 spreadsheet.

14 Is that right, Wilmer?

15 MS. VANDRUFF: Your Honor, it was prepared by 16 Mr. Kevin Wilmer, that's correct.

17 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Okay.

18 The spreadsheet regarding the issue of 19 Social Security numbers generated from Thomson Reuters,
20 I have concerns about the reliability of the data
21 comprising the spreadsheet, which in turn reflects on 22 the reliability of the spreadsheet itself, any 23 conclusions that can be drawn from it, how accurate is 24 the Thomson Reuters database, et cetera.

25 I'm not admitting that exhibit today. However,

1 hallway.

2 I think that concludes it.

3 Do we have anything further from either party?

4 MR. SHERMAN: Nothing further from respondents,
5 Your Honor.

6 MS. VANDRUFF: Nothing from complaint counsel,
7 Your Honor.

8 JUDGE CHAPPELL: Right. You will reconfigure
9 what will become JX 2, and it will be comprised
10 basically of the stip you offered last night. I think
11 paragraph 2 will be gone now. That was the one about 12 conditional admissions, but the rest sounds good.

13 Hearing nothing further, on Tuesday -- hang on a
14 second. I need to procedurally do something.

15 At this time I'm going to conclude the final
16 prehearing conference, and until Tuesday at 10:00 a.m.
17 we are adjourned.

18 (Whereupon, the foregoing final prehearing
19 conference was concluded at 2:26 p.m.)

<sup>1</sup> Defendants seek to preclude Plaintiffs from offering declarations and third-party investigational hearing transcripts they obtained before filing their Complaint. Arguing the documents are hearsay, needlessly cumulative and controvert Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 43's preference for live testimony, Defendants ask the Court to refrain from exercising its discretion to consider them. (Def.'s Mot. at 2–4, ECF No. 132.)

The Court is not strictly bound by the Federal Rules of Evidence in a preliminary injunction proceeding. As both sides acknowledge, the Court may use its discretion to consider hearsay evidence in this context. See Kos Pharms., Inc. v. Andrx Corp., 369 F.3d 700, 718–19 (3d Cir. 2004) (“District courts must exercise their discretion in weighing all the attendant factors, including the need for expedition, to assess whether, and to what extent, affidavits or other hearsay materials are appropriate given the character and objectives of the injunctive proceeding.”) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted). Given that part of the Court's role in the preliminary injunction proceeding will be to determine Plaintiffs' likelihood of success on the merits in the administrative adjudication, see FTC v. Penn State Hershey Med. Ctr., 838 F.3d 327, 337 (3d Cir. 2016), Plaintiffs may present declarations or investigational hearing transcripts that they may later introduce during the administrative adjudication. The parties are also entitled to examine live witnesses as they deem appropriate during the preliminary injunction hearing. The Court will evaluate and consider the live testimony and accompanying evidence and will give the weight it considers appropriate to any declarations or investigational hearing transcripts introduced into the record in the absence of a live witness.

ORDER DENYING RESPONDENT'S MOTION TO PRECLUDE COMPLAINT COUNSEL'S PROPOSED PROFFER OF INVESTIGATIONAL HEARING TRANSCRIPTS AT TRIAL

I.

On July 27, 2012, Respondent McWane, Inc. ("Respondent" or "McWane") filed a Motion in Limine to Preclude Complaint Counsel's Proposed Proffer of Investigational Hearing Transcripts at Trial ("Motion"). Complaint Counsel filed an opposition to the Motion on August 7, 2012 ("Opposition"). Having fully considered the Motion and the Opposition, and as more fully explained below, Respondent's Motion is DENIED.

II.

As stated most recently in In re POM Wonderful LLC:

"Motion in limine" refers "to any motion, whether made before or during trial, to exclude anticipated prejudicial evidence before the evidence is actually offered." Luce v. United States, 469 U.S. 38, 40 n.2, 105 S. Ct. 460, 83 L. Ed. 2d 443 (1984); see also In re Motor Up Corp., Docket 9291, 1999 FTC LEXIS 207, at *1 (August 5, 1999). Although the Federal Rules of Evidence do not explicitly authorize in limine rulings, the practice has developed pursuant to the court's inherent authority to manage the course of trials. Luce, 469 U.S. at 41 n.4. The practice has also been used in Commission proceedings. E.g., In re Telebrands Corp., Docket 9313, 2004 FTC LEXIS 270 (April 26, 2004); In re Dura Lube Corp., Docket 9292, 1999 FTC LEXIS 252 (Oct. 22, 1999).

Evidence should be excluded on a motion in limine only when the evidence is clearly inadmissible on all potential grounds. Hawthorne

Partners v. AT&T Technologies, Inc., 831 F. Supp. 1398, 1400 (N.D. Ill. 1993); see also Sec. Exch. Comm'n v. U.S. Environmental, Inc., No. 94 Civ. 6608 (PKL) (AJP), 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19701, at *5-6 (S.D.N.Y. October 16, 2002). Courts considering a motion in limine may reserve judgment until trial, so that the motion is placed in the appropriate factual context. U.S. Environmental, 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19701, at *6; see, e.g., Veloso v. Western Bedding Supply Co., Inc., 281 F. Supp. 2d 743, 750 (D.N.J. 2003).

2011 FTC LEXIS 77, at *3-4 (May 5, 2011).

In addition, “[i]n limine rulings are not binding on the trial judge, and the judge may change his mind during the course of a trial.” In re Daniel Chapter One, No. 9329, 2009 FTC LEXIS 85, at *20 (Apr. 20, 2009) (citations omitted). “Denial of a motion in limine does not necessarily mean that all evidence contemplated by the motion will be admitted at trial. Denial merely means that without the context of trial, the court is unable to determine whether the evidence in question should be excluded.” Id. (quoting Noble v. Sheahan, 116 F. Supp. 2d 966, 969 (N.D. Ill. 2000)).

III.

Respondent states that Complaint Counsel has designated for admission at trial portions of 19 investigative hearing transcripts (IHTs). Respondent contends that all the IHTs should be excluded pursuant to Rule 3.43(b) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice because they are unreliable, cumulative, a waste of time, and/or any probative value is outweighed by the risk of confusion and prejudice to Respondent if they are admitted. In support of its argument that the IHTs are unreliable and/or present the risk of confusion and prejudice, Respondent asserts that, pursuant to Commission Rules of Practice 2.8 and 2.9, Respondent was not given notice of, and did not attend, 17 of the 19 investigative hearings, and that there was no opportunity to object to improper questions or to contemporaneously cross-examine any of the investigational hearing witnesses. In support of Respondent’s argument that the IHTs should be excluded as a “waste of time” and “needless presentation of cumulative evidence,” Respondent asserts that Complaint Counsel also has taken the deposition of every witness who provided testimony earlier at an investigational hearing and, according to Complaint Counsel’s final proposed witness list, intends to call each such witness for live testimony at trial. Moreover, Respondent argues, depositions and live testimony are more thorough and more reliable than IHTs, and there is no risk of prejudice to Complaint Counsel from being barred from introducing the IHTs.

Complaint Counsel argues that the Commission’s Rules expressly allow the admission of IHTs, and the procedural rules governing the conduct of investigational hearings do not result in testimony so inherently unreliable as to be subject to a blanket exclusion. Complaint Counsel asserts that Respondent has failed to demonstrate that any of the designated investigational hearing testimony is unreliable. Complaint Counsel states that, indeed, Respondent has failed to identify any allegedly objectionable investigational hearing testimony that has been designated for admission. Moreover, Complaint Counsel notes, Respondent deposed each investigational hearing witness, including examining each witness' credibility and bases for prior testimony.

Furthermore, Complaint Counsel argues, the IHTs cannot be deemed cumulative or unnecessary where, as here, Respondent has failed to point to any testimony that is duplicative of other testimony. In addition, the testimony is not duplicative, Complaint Counsel asserts, because due to limitations on the time allowed for the depositions of each investigational hearing witness, Complaint Counsel did not question the witnesses on all areas covered by the investigational hearing testimony, and references to investigational hearing testimony in the depositions will be difficult to understand without further reference to the actual investigational hearing testimony. According to Complaint Counsel, Respondent has also designated investigational hearing testimony as exhibits and Respondent's expert relied on IHTs in forming his opinions. Finally, Complaint Counsel notes that investigational hearing testimony of McWane executives is admissible pursuant to Rule 3.43(b) in any event, as statements of a party-opponent.

IV.

Pursuant to Commission Rule 3.43(b), “[r]elevant, material, and reliable evidence shall be admitted. Irrelevant, immaterial, and unreliable evidence shall be excluded. Evidence, even if relevant, may be excluded if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusion of the issues, or if the evidence would be misleading, or based on considerations of undue delay, waste of time, or needless presentation of cumulative evidence.” 16 C.F.R. § 3.43(b). With respect to the admissibility of investigational hearing testimony, Rule 3.43(b) further states:

Evidence that constitutes hearsay may be admitted if it is relevant, material, and bears satisfactory indicia of reliability so that its use is fair. . . . If otherwise meeting the standards for admissibility described in this paragraph, depositions, investigational hearings, prior testimony in Commission or other proceedings, expert reports, and any other form of hearsay, shall be admissible and shall not be excluded solely on the ground that they are or contain hearsay.

Id. (emphasis added); see also 74 Fed. Reg. 1804 at *1816 (January 20, 2009) (Commission explaining that under revised Rule 3.43(b), investigational hearings “would be admissible and would not be excluded solely because they constitute or contain hearsay, if the testimony or other form of hearsay was sufficiently reliable and probative”).

hearings conducted pursuant to a civil investigative demand for the giving of oral testimony, the Commission investigators shall exclude from the hearing room all other persons except the person being examined, his counsel, the officer before whom the testimony is to be taken, and the stenographer recording such testimony. . . .

16 C.F.R. § 2.8(b), (c). In addition, pursuant to Rule 2.9, investigational hearing witnesses are entitled to review, correct and sign the hearing transcript; bring counsel; and be advised by counsel during questioning. However, there are only limited rights to object to questions, and there are no provisions for cross-examination. 16 C.F.R. § 2.9.

Respondent cites no authority for its position that the Commission's Rules that do not allow Respondent's counsel to appear, object to questions, or cross-examine the investigational hearing witness, necessarily result in testimony that is unreliable and, therefore, must be excluded under Rule 3.43(b). Moreover, the witness' ability to review and correct the IHT, and to be advised by counsel, are indicia of the testimony's reliability. In addition, the IHT attached to Respondent's motion shows that the testimony was given under oath, which also adds to its reliability. Respondent's argument that deposition testimony and live testimony are more reliable than investigational hearing testimony, because of the ability to cross-examine, does not mean that the investigational hearing testimony is unreliable to the extent that it is inadmissible in its entirety. Rather, this argument goes to the weight to be given the investigational hearing testimony, not to its admissibility.

The Rules do not, however, provide for the automatic admission of IHTs at trial. Rather, Rule 3.43 clearly contemplates that individual portions of investigational hearing testimony can be excluded, like any other proffered evidence, if the testimony is irrelevant, unreliable, duplicative, or otherwise fails to "meet[ ] the standards for admissibility described in" Rule 3.43. 16 C.F.R. § 3.43(b). Respondent has failed to identify any testimony that has been designated by Complaint Counsel to which it objects, and Respondent's general assertions of unreliability or duplication of evidence are insufficient. See In re Rambus, 2002 FTC LEXIS 90, at *10 (Nov. 18, 2002) (holding that conclusory assertions of burden were insufficient basis for quashing subpoena). See also In re North Texas Specialty Physicians, 2006 FTC LEXIS 10, at * 8-9 (Jan. 10, 2006) (denying motion to stay injunctive order, in part because "[s]imple assertions of harm or conclusory statements based on unsupported assumptions" were insufficient to meet burden of showing harm). Such general assertions are particularly insufficient to exclude evidence, prior to, and outside the context of, trial.

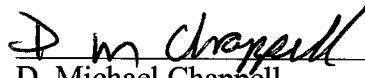

Respondent has failed to meet its burden of demonstrating that Complaint Counsel's proffered IHTs are clearly inadmissible on all potential grounds. Accordingly, Respondent's Motion is DENIED.

V.

Having fully considered the Motion and the Opposition, and for all the foregoing reasons, Respondent's Motion to Preclude Complaint Counsel's Proposed Proffer of Investigational Hearing Transcripts at Trial is DENIED. This Order is not a determination, and shall not be construed as a ruling, as to the admissibility of any particular IHT testimony that may be offered at trial.

SCHEDULING ORDER

- August 17, 2020 - Complaint Counsel provides preliminary witness list (not including experts) with a summary of the general topics of each witness' anticipated testimony.
- August 31, 2020 - Respondents' Counsel provides preliminary witness list (not including experts) with a summary of the general topics of each witness' anticipated testimony.

The parties' preliminary witness lists (not including experts) shall include no more than 35 persons. The lists must reflect each party's good-faith efforts to identify for the other side any witnesses it may call at trial other than solely for impeachment.

- November 9, 2020 - Complaint Counsel provides expert witness list.
- November 20, 2020 - Deadline for issuing document requests and interrogatories to parties, except for discovery for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- November 23, 2020 - Respondents' Counsel provides expert witness list.
- December 18, 2020 - Complaint Counsel shall provide its supplemental witness list

(not including experts) with a summary of the general topics of each witness' anticipated testimony. The list shall include no more than 30 persons, including no more than seven party witnesses who did not appear on Complaint Counsel's preliminary witness list. Third-party witnesses shall count toward the 30-person limit, but there shall be no other limit on the number of new third-party witnesses that may be added to the supplemental list.

- December 21, 2020 - Deadline for issuing subpoenas duces tecum to third parties, except for discovery for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- January 6, 2021 - Respondents' Counsel shall provide their supplemental witness list (not including experts) with a summary of the general topics of each witness' anticipated testimony. The list shall include no more than 30 persons, including no more than seven party witnesses who did not appear on Respondents' Counsel's preliminary witness list. Third-party witnesses shall count toward the 30-person limit, but there shall be no other limit on the number of new third-party witnesses that may be added to the supplemental list.
- January 19, 2021 - Deadline for issuing requests for admissions, except for requests for admissions for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- February 1, 2021 - Close of discovery, other than discovery permitted under Rule 3.24(a)(4), depositions of experts, and discovery for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- February 8, 2021 - Deadline for Complaint Counsel to provide expert witness reports.
- March 1, 2021 - Complaint Counsel provides to Respondents' Counsel its final proposed exhibit list, including depositions, copies of all exhibits (except for demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits and expert related exhibits), and Complaint Counsel's basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit.

Complaint Counsel also provides its final proposed witness list, which shall include: (1) an indication whether each witness is designated as fact or expert witness; (2) a summary of the general topics of each witness' anticipated testimony; and (3) a good faith indication whether Complaint Counsel intends to seek leave to present the witness' testimony by video deposition. Complaint

Counsel’s proposed final witness list shall not include more than 25 fact witnesses, and shall not include more than three witnesses who did not appear on the supplemental witness lists provided by Complaint Counsel in accordance with the timeframes set forth above. No witness may be added to the final witness list who did not appear on the supplemental witness list unless such witnesses have been deposed in their personal capacity in this litigation.

Complaint Counsel provides courtesy copies to ALJ of its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, its basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness, including its expert witnesses.

March 8, 2021 - Deadline for Respondents’ Counsel to provide expert witness reports. Respondents’ expert report shall include (without limitation) rebuttal, if any, to Complaint Counsel’s expert witness report(s).

March 10, 2021 - Respondents’ Counsel provides to Complaint Counsel its final proposed exhibit list, including depositions, copies of all exhibits (except for demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits and expert related exhibits), and Respondents’ basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit.

Respondents’ Counsel also provides each party’s final proposed witness list, which shall include: (1) an indication whether each witness is designated as fact or expert witness; (2) a summary of the general topics of each witness’ anticipated testimony; and (3) a good faith indication whether Respondents’ Counsel intends to seek leave to present the witness’ testimony by video deposition. Respondents’ Counsel’s proposed final witness list shall not include more than 25 fact witnesses, and shall not include more than three witnesses who did not appear on the supplemental witness lists provided by Respondents’ Counsel in accordance with the timeframes set forth above. No witness may be added to the final witness list who did not appear on the supplemental witness list unless such witnesses have been deposed in their personal capacity in this litigation.

Respondents’ Counsel provides courtesy copies to ALJ of its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, its basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness, including its expert witnesses.

March 11, 2021 - Parties that intend to offer confidential materials of an opposing party or non-party as evidence at the hearing must provide notice to the opposing party or non-party, pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(b).<sup>1</sup>

- March 19, 2021 - Complaint Counsel to identify rebuttal expert(s) and provide rebuttal expert report(s). Any such reports are to be limited to rebuttal of matters set forth in Respondents' expert reports. If material outside the scope of fair rebuttal is presented, Respondents will have the right to seek appropriate relief (such as striking Complaint Counsel's rebuttal expert reports or seeking leave to submit surrebuttal expert reports on behalf of Respondents).
- March 22, 2021 - Deadline for filing motions in limine to preclude admission of evidence, except to the extent such motions relate to any expert rebuttal report, in which case such motions must be made within four days after the deposition of the rebuttal expert. See Additional Provision 15.
- March 22, 2021 - Deadline for filing motions for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits. See Additional Provision 14.
- March 24, 2021 - Deadline for depositions of experts, except any expert providing a rebuttal report, and exchange of expert related exhibits.
- March 26, 2021 - Exchange and provide a courtesy copy to ALJ of objections to final proposed witness lists and exhibit lists. The Parties are directed to review the Commission's Rules on admissibility of evidence before filing objections to exhibits.
- March 26, 2021 - Complaint Counsel files pretrial brief supported by legal authority.
- March 30, 2021 - Deadline for depositions of rebuttal experts.
- March 30, 2021 - Deadline for filing responses to motions in limine to preclude admission of evidence, except to the extent such motions relate to any expert rebuttal report, in which case any such response must be within four days after the motion in limine is filed.

<sup>1</sup> Appendix A to Commission Rule 3.31, the Standard Protective Order, states that if a party or third party wishes in camera treatment for a document or transcript that a party intends to introduce into evidence, that party or third party shall file an appropriate motion with the Administrative Law Judge within 5 days after it receives notice of a party's intent to introduce such material. Commission Rule 3.45(b) states that parties who seek to use material obtained from a third party subject to confidentiality restrictions must demonstrate that the third party has been given at least 10 days' notice of the proposed use of such material. To resolve this apparent conflict, the Scheduling Order requires that the parties provide 10 days' notice to the opposing party or third parties to allow for the filing of motions for in camera treatment.

- March 30, 2021 - Deadline for filing responses to motions for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits.
- April 2, 2021 - Exchange proposed stipulations of law, facts, and authenticity.
- April 6, 2021 - Respondents' Counsel files pretrial brief supported by legal authority.
- April 9, 2021 - Final prehearing conference to begin at 1:00 p.m. in FTC Courtroom, Room 532, Federal Trade Commission Building, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

The parties shall meet and confer prior to the prehearing conference regarding trial logistics and proposed stipulations of law, facts, and authenticity of exhibits.

To the extent the parties have agreed to stipulate to any issues of law, facts, and/or authenticity of exhibits, the parties shall prepare a list of such stipulations and submit a copy of the stipulations to the ALJ one business day prior to the conference. At the conference, the parties' list of stipulations shall be marked as "JX1" and signed by each party, and the list shall be offered into evidence as a joint exhibit. No signature by the ALJ is required. Any subsequent stipulations may be offered as agreed by the parties.

Counsel may present any objections to the final proposed witness lists and exhibits. Trial exhibits will be admitted or excluded to the extent practicable. To the extent the parties agree to the admission of each other's exhibits, the parties shall prepare a list identifying each exhibit to which admissibility is agreed, marked as "JX2" and signed by each party, which list shall be offered into evidence as a joint exhibit. No signature by the ALJ is required.

- April 13, 2021 - Commencement of Hearing, to begin at 10:00 a.m. in FTC Courtroom, Room 532, Federal Trade Commission Building, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. For all papers that are required to be filed with the Office of the Secretary, the parties shall provide a courtesy copy to the Administrative Law Judge by electronic mail to the following email address: oalj@ftc.gov. The courtesy copy should be transmitted at or shortly after the time of any electronic filing with the Office of the Secretary. Courtesy copies must be transmitted to Office of the Administrative Law Judge directly, and the FTC E-filing system shall not be used for this purpose. The oyalj@ftc.gov email account is to be used only for courtesy copies of pleadings filed with the Office of the Secretary and for documents specifically requested of the parties by the Office of Administrative Law Judges. Certificates of service for any pleading shall not include the OALJ email address, or the email address of any OALJ personnel, including the Chief ALJ, but rather shall designate only 600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Rm. H-110 as the place of service. The subject line of all electronic submissions to oyalj@ftc.gov shall set forth the docket number, an abbreviated case name, and the title of the submission (e.g., “No. 1234: Acme Corp – Motion to Extend”). The parties are not required to provide a courtesy copy to the OALJ in hard copy, except upon request. In any instance in which a courtesy copy of a pleading for the Administrative Law Judge cannot be effectuated by electronic mail, counsel shall hand deliver a hard copy to the Office of Administrative Law Judges. Discovery requests and discovery responses shall not be submitted to the Office of Administrative Law Judges.

2. The parties shall serve each other by electronic mail and shall include “Docket 9393” in the re: line and all attached documents in .pdf format. In the event that service through electronic mail is not possible, the parties may serve each other through any method authorized under the Commission’s Rules of Practice.

3. Each pleading that cites to unpublished opinions or opinions not available on LEXIS or WESTLAW shall include such copies as exhibits.

4. Each motion (other than a motion to dismiss, motion for summary decision, or a motion for in camera treatment) shall be accompanied by a separate signed statement representing that counsel for the moving party has conferred with opposing counsel in an effort in good faith to resolve by agreement the issues raised by the motion and has been unable to reach such an agreement. In addition, pursuant to Rule 3.22(g), for each motion to quash filed pursuant to § 3.34(c), each motion to compel or determine sufficiency pursuant to § 3.38(a), or each motion for sanctions pursuant to § 3.38(b), the required signed statement must also “recite the date, time, and place of each . . . conference between counsel, and the names of all parties participating in each such conference.” Motions that fail to include such separate statement may be denied on that ground.

All written motions shall state the particular order, ruling, or action desired and the grounds therefor. Memoranda in support of, or in opposition to, any dispositive motion shall not exceed 10,000 words. Memoranda in support of, or in opposition to, any other motion shall not exceed 2,500 words. Any reply in support of a dispositive motion shall not exceed 5,000 words and any reply in support of any other motion authorized by the Administrative Law Judge or the Commission shall not exceed 1,250 words.

If a party chooses to submit a motion without a separate memorandum, the word count limits of 3.22(c) apply to the motion. If a party chooses to submit a motion with a separate memorandum, absent prior approval of the ALJ, the motion shall be limited to 750 words, and the word count limits of 3.22(c) apply to the memorandum in support of the motion. This provision applies to all motions filed with the Administrative Law Judge, including those filed under Rule 3.38.

6. If papers filed with the Office of the Secretary contain in camera or confidential material, the filing party shall mark any such material in the complete version of their submission with {bold font and braces}. 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(e). Parties shall be aware of the rules for filings containing such information, including 16 C.F.R. § 4.2.

7. Each party is limited to 50 document requests, including all discrete subparts; 25 interrogatories, including all discrete subparts; and 10 requests for admissions, including all discrete subparts, except that there shall be no limit on the number of requests for admission for authentication and admissibility of exhibits. Any single interrogatory inquiring as to a request for admissions response may address only a single such response. There is no limit to the number of sets of discovery requests the parties may issue, so long as the total number of each type of discovery request, including all subparts, does not exceed these limits. Within 21 days of service of a document request, the parties shall: (1) confer about the format for the production of electronically stored information; and (2) serve any objections to the document requests. Within five days of serving any objections, the parties will meet and confer to attempt to resolve any disputes. The party responding to document requests must produce responsive documents on a rolling basis and will make a good-faith effort to produce them as expeditiously as possible. No deposition of a party witness (including any former employee) shall be scheduled sooner than four business days following the time the party completes production of that witness' documents within the party's custody or control in response to a subpoena duces tecum.

8. Compliance with the scheduled end of discovery requires that the parties serve subpoenas and discovery requests sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off and that all responses and objections will be due on or before that date, unless otherwise noted. Any motion to compel responses to discovery requests shall be filed within 30 days of service of the responses and/or objections to the discovery requests or within 20 days after the close of discovery, whichever first occurs; except that, where the parties have been engaging in negotiations over a discovery dispute, the deadline for the motion to compel shall be within 5 days of reaching an impasse.

9. A party that obtains a declaration from a non-party must produce the declaration at least three days before the non-party is scheduled to be deposed, but no later than January 18, 2021 absent a showing of good cause. The parties reserve all rights and objections with respect to the use and/or admissibility of any declaration, and no declaration shall be admitted unless a fair opportunity was available to depose the declarant.

10. A party that produces for deposition a corporate representative(s) pursuant to 16 CFR § 3.33(c)(1) must identify to the other side the representative(s) it intends to produce and, to the extent it intends to produce more than one representative, the matters on which each witness will testify, no less than five days in advance of the scheduled deposition.

11. The deposition of any person may be recorded by videotape, provided that the deposing party notifies the deponent and all parties of its intention to record the deposition by videotape at least five days in advance of the deposition. The parties shall work in good faith, in light of the public-health emergency, to develop appropriate protocols for remote depositions. No deposition, whether recorded by videotape or otherwise, may exceed a single, seven-hour day, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Administrative Law Judge. Each side shall be limited to taking a total of 35 depositions, other than expert depositions, unless the Administrative Law Judge grants leave to take any additional depositions.

12. The parties shall serve upon one another, at the time of issuance, copies of all subpoenas duces tecum and subpoenas ad testificandum. For subpoenas ad testificandum, the party seeking the deposition shall consult with the other parties before the time and place of the deposition is scheduled. The parties need not separately notice the deposition of a non-party noticed by an opposing party. If both sides notice any non-party fact deposition, the time and allocation for the deposition shall be divided evenly between them. For any non-party deposition noticed by only one side, the non-noticing side shall be allocated one and a half hours of deposition time for cross or re-cross testimony. Unused time in any side's allocation of deposition time may be used by the other side only if agreed to by all parties, or as ordered by the Administrative Law Judge. Solely for the purpose of allocating deposition time pursuant to this Paragraph 12, former employees of a party are considered party witnesses rather than non-party witnesses if such former employees are represented by the party's counsel.

13. Non-parties shall provide copies or make available for inspection and copying of documents requested by subpoena to the party issuing the subpoena. The party that has requested documents from non-parties shall provide copies of the documents received from non-parties to the opposing party within three business days of receiving the documents. No deposition of a non-party shall be scheduled between the time a non-party provides documents in response to a subpoena duces tecum to a party, and five business days after the party provides those documents to the other party, unless a shorter time is required by unforeseen logistical issues in scheduling the deposition, or a non-party produces those documents at the time of the deposition, as agreed to by all parties involved.

14. If a party intends to offer confidential materials of an opposing party or non-party as evidence at the hearing, in providing notice to such non-party, the parties are required to inform each non-party of the strict standards for motions for in camera treatment for evidence to be introduced at trial set forth in 16 C.F.R. § 3.45, explained In re Otto Bock Healthcare N. Am., 2018 WL 3491602 at *1 (July 2, 2018); and In re 1-800 Contacts, Inc., 2017 FTC LEXIS 55 (April 4, 2017). Motions also must be supported by a declaration or affidavit by a person qualified to explain the confidential nature of the documents. In re 1-800 Contacts, Inc., 2017 FTC LEXIS 55 (April 4, 2017); In re North Texas Specialty Physicians, 2004 FTC LEXIS 66 (April 23, 2004). Each party or non-party that files a motion for in camera treatment shall provide one copy of the documents for which in camera treatment is sought to the Administrative Law Judge.

15. Motions in limine are strongly discouraged. Motion in limine refers "to any motion, whether made before or during trial, to exclude anticipated prejudicial evidence before the evidence is actually offered." In re Daniel Chapter One, 2009 FTC LEXIS 85, *18-20

(April 20, 2009) (citing Luce v. United States, 469 U.S. 38, 40 n.2 (1984)). Evidence should be excluded in advance of trial on a motion in limine only when the evidence is clearly inadmissible on all potential grounds. Id. (citing Hawthorne Partners v. AT&T Technologies, Inc., 831 F. Supp. 1398, 1400 (N.D. Ill. 1993); Sec. Exch. Comm'n v. U.S. Environmental, Inc., 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19701, at *5-6 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 16, 2002)). Moreover, the risk of prejudice from giving undue weight to marginally relevant evidence is minimal in a bench trial such as this where the judge is capable of assigning appropriate weight to evidence.

16. The final witness lists shall represent counsel's good faith designation of all potential witnesses who counsel reasonably expect may be called in their case-in-chief. Parties shall notify the opposing party promptly of changes in witness lists to facilitate completion of discovery within the dates of the scheduling order. The final proposed witness list may not include additional witnesses not listed in the preliminary or supplemental witness lists previously exchanged unless pursuant to the provisions in the above schedule, by consent of all parties, or, if the parties do not consent, by an order of the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of good cause.

17. If any party wishes to offer a rebuttal witness other than a rebuttal expert, the party shall file a request in writing in the form of a motion to request a rebuttal witness. That motion shall be filed as soon as possible after the testimony sought to be rebutted is known and shall include: (a) the name of any witness being proposed (b) a detailed description of the rebuttal evidence being offered; (c) citations to the record, by page and line number, to the evidence that the party intends to rebut; and shall demonstrate that the witness the party seeks to call has previously been designated on its witness list or adequately explain why the requested witness was not designated on its witness list.

18. Witnesses shall not testify to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of the matter. F.R.E. 602.

19. Witnesses not properly designated as expert witnesses shall not provide opinions beyond what is allowed in F.R.E. 701.

20. The parties are required to comply with Rule 3.31A and with the following:

(a) At the time an expert is first listed as a witness by a party, that party shall provide to the other party:

(i) materials fully describing or identifying the background and qualifications of the expert, all publications authored by the expert within the preceding ten years, and all prior cases in which the expert has testified or has been deposed within the preceding four years; and

(ii) transcripts of such testimony in the possession, custody, or control of the producing party or the expert, except that transcript sections that are under seal in a separate proceeding need not be produced.

(b) At the time an expert report is produced, the producing party shall provide to the other party all documents and other written materials relied upon by the expert in formulating an opinion in this case, subject to the provisions of 19(g), except that documents and materials already produced in the case need only be listed by Bates number.

(c) It shall be the responsibility of a party designating an expert witness to ensure that the expert witness is reasonably available for deposition in keeping with this Scheduling Order. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Administrative Law Judge, expert witnesses shall be deposed only once and each expert deposition shall be limited to one day for seven hours.

(d) Each expert report shall include a complete statement of all opinions to be expressed and the basis and reasons therefor; the data or other information relied on by the expert in forming the opinions; any exhibits to be used as a summary of or support for the opinions; the qualifications of the expert; and the compensation to be paid for the study and testimony.

(e) A party may not discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of this litigation or preparation for hearing and who is not designated by a party as a testifying witness.

(f) At the time of service of the expert reports, a party shall provide opposing counsel:

(i) a list of all commercially-available computer programs used by the expert in the preparation of the report;

(ii) a copy of all data sets used by the expert, in native file format and processed data file format; and

(iii) all customized computer programs used by the expert in the preparation of the report or necessary to replicate the findings on which the expert report is based.

(g) Experts' disclosures and reports shall comply in all respects with Rule 3.31A, except that neither side must preserve or disclose:

(i) any form of communication or work product shared between any of the parties' counsel and their expert(s), or between any of the experts themselves;

(ii) any form of communication or work product shared between an expert(s) and persons assisting the expert(s);

(iii) expert's notes, unless they constitute the only record of a fact or an assumption relied upon by the expert in formulating an opinion in this case;

(iv) drafts of expert reports, analyses, or other work product; or

(v) data formulations, data runs, data analyses, or any database-related operations not relied upon by the expert in the opinions contained in his or her final report.

21. If the expert reports prepared for either party contain confidential information that has been granted in camera treatment, the party shall prepare two versions of its expert report(s) in accordance with 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(e).

22. An expert witness' testimony is limited to opinions contained in the expert report that has been previously and properly provided to the opposing party. In addition, no opinion will be considered, even if included in an expert report, if the underlying and supporting documents and information have not been properly provided to the opposing party. Unless an expert witness is qualified as a fact witness, an expert witness is only allowed to provide opinion testimony; expert testimony is not considered for the purpose of establishing the underlying facts of the case.

23. The final exhibit lists shall represent counsel's good faith designation of all trial exhibits other than demonstrative, illustrative, or summary exhibits. Additional exhibits may be added after the submission of the final lists only by consent of all parties, or, if the parties do not consent, by an order of the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of good cause.

24. Properly admitted deposition testimony and properly admitted investigational hearing transcripts are part of the record and shall not be read in open court to provide that testimony, but may be used in the examination of live witnesses. Videotape deposition excerpts that have been admitted in evidence may be presented in open court only upon prior approval by the Administrative Law Judge.

25. The parties shall provide to one another, and to the Administrative Law Judge and the court reporter, no later than 48 hours in advance, not including weekends and holidays, a list of all witnesses to be called on each day of hearing, subject to possible delays or unforeseen circumstances.

26. The parties shall provide one another with copies of any demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits (other than those prepared for cross-examination) 24 hours before they are used with a witness.

27. Complaint Counsel's exhibits shall bear the designation PX and Respondents' exhibits shall bear the designation RX or some other appropriate designation. Complaint Counsel's demonstrative exhibits shall bear the designation PXD and Respondents' demonstrative exhibits shall bear the designation RXD or some other appropriate designation. If demonstrative exhibits are used with a witness, the exhibit will be marked and referred to for identification only. Any demonstrative exhibits referred to by any witness may be included in the trial record, but they are not part of the evidentiary record and may not be cited to support any disputed fact. Both sides shall number the first page of each exhibit with a single series of consecutive numbers. When an exhibit consists of more than one piece of paper, each page of the exhibit must bear a consecutive control number or some other consecutive page number. Additionally, parties must account for all their respective exhibit numbers. Any number not actually used at the hearing shall be designated "intentionally not used."

28. At the final prehearing conference, counsel will be required to introduce all exhibits they intend to introduce at trial and to provide the exhibits to the court reporter. The parties shall confer and shall eliminate duplicative exhibits in advance of the final prehearing conference and, if necessary, during trial. For example, if PX100 and RX200 are different copies of the same document, only one of those documents shall be offered into evidence. The parties shall agree in advance as to which exhibit number they intend to use. Counsel shall contact the court reporter regarding submission of exhibits.

- January 30, 2018 - Complaint Counsel provides preliminary witness list (not including experts) with a brief summary of the proposed testimony.
- February 2, 2018 - Complaint Counsel provides expert witness list.
- February 6, 2018 - Respondent's Counsel provides preliminary witness list (not including experts) with a brief summary of the proposed testimony.
- February 12, 2018 - Respondent's Counsel provides expert witness list.
- February 28, 2018 - Deadline for issuing document requests, interrogatories and subpoenas duces tecum, except for discovery for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- March 2, 2018 - Deadline for supplementing preliminary witness lists.
- March 15, 2018 - Deadline for issuing requests for admissions, except for requests for admissions for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- March 30, 2018 - Close of discovery, other than discovery permitted under Rule 3.24(a)(4), depositions of experts, and discovery for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.

- April 9, 2018 - Deadline for Complaint Counsel to provide expert witness reports.
- April 13, 2018 - Complaint Counsel provides to Respondent's Counsel its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, including depositions, copies of all exhibits (except for demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits and expert related exhibits), Complaint Counsel's basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness.
- Complaint Counsel serves courtesy copies on ALJ of its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, its basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness, including its expert witnesses.
- April 24, 2018 - Deadline for Respondent's Counsel to provide expert witness reports (to be provided by 4 p.m. ET). Respondent's expert report shall include (without limitation) rebuttal, if any, to Complaint Counsel's expert witness report(s).
- April 24, 2018 - Respondent's Counsel provides to Complaint Counsel its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, including depositions, copies of all exhibits (except for demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits and expert related exhibits), Respondent's basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness.
- Respondent's Counsel serves courtesy copies on ALJ its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, its basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness, including its expert witnesses.
- April 24, 2018 - Parties that intend to offer confidential materials of an opposing party or non-party as evidence at the hearing must provide notice to the opposing party or non-party, pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(b).<sup>1</sup> See Additional Provision 7.

<sup>1</sup> Appendix A to Commission Rule 3.31, the Standard Protective Order, states that if a party or third party wishes in camera treatment for a document or transcript that a party intends to introduce into evidence, that party or third party shall file an appropriate motion with the Administrative Law Judge within 5 days after it receives notice of a party's intent to introduce such material. Commission Rule 3.45(b) states that parties who seek to use material obtained from a third party subject to confidentiality restrictions must demonstrate that the third party has been given at least 10 days' notice of the proposed use of such material. To resolve this apparent conflict, the Scheduling Order requires that the parties provide 10 days' notice to the opposing party or third parties to allow for the filing of motions for in camera treatment.

- May 3, 2018 - Complaint Counsel to identify rebuttal expert(s) and provide rebuttal expert report(s). Any such reports are to be limited to rebuttal of matters set forth in Respondent's expert reports. If material outside the scope of fair rebuttal is presented, Respondent will have the right to seek appropriate relief (such as striking Complaint Counsel's rebuttal expert reports or seeking leave to submit surrebuttal expert reports on behalf of Respondent).
- May 7, 2018 - Deadline for filing motions in limine to preclude admission of evidence. See Additional Provision 9.
- May 7, 2018 - Deadline for filing motions for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits.
- May 11, 2018 - Deadline for depositions of experts (including rebuttal experts) and exchange of expert related exhibits.
- May 14, 2018 - Exchange and serve courtesy copy on ALJ objections to final proposed witness lists and exhibit lists. The Parties are directed to review the Commission's Rules on admissibility of evidence before filing objections to exhibits.
- May 14, 2018 - Complaint Counsel files pretrial brief supported by legal authority.
- May 14, 2018 - Deadline for filing responses to motions in limine to preclude admission of evidence.
- May 14, 2018 - Deadline for filing responses to motions for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits.
- May 14, 2018 - Exchange proposed stipulations of law, facts, and authenticity.
- May 16, 2018 - Respondent's Counsel files pretrial brief supported by legal authority.
- May 18, 2018 - Final prehearing conference to begin at 1:00 p.m. in FTC Courtroom, Room 532, Federal Trade Commission Building, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

The parties shall meet and confer prior to the prehearing conference regarding trial logistics and proposed stipulations of law, facts, and authenticity of exhibits. To the extent the parties have agreed to stipulate to any issues of law, facts, and/or authenticity of exhibits, the parties shall prepare a list of such stipulations and submit a copy of the stipulations to the ALJ one business day prior to the conference. At the conference, the parties' list of stipulations shall be marked as "JX1" and signed by each party, and the list shall be offered into evidence as a joint exhibit. No signature by the ALJ is required. Any subsequent stipulations may be offered as agreed by the parties.

Counsel may present any objections to the final proposed witness lists and exhibits. Trial exhibits will be admitted or excluded to the extent practicable. To the extent the parties agree to the admission of each other's exhibits, the parties shall prepare a list identifying each exhibit to which admissibility is agreed, marked as "JX2" and signed by each party, which list shall be offered into evidence as a joint exhibit. No signature by the ALJ is required.

May 22, 2018 - Commencement of Hearing, to begin at 10:00 a.m. in FTC Courtroom, Room 532, Federal Trade Commission Building, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. For all papers that are required to be filed with the Office of the Secretary, the parties shall serve a courtesy copy on the Administrative Law Judge by electronic mail to the following email address: oyalj@ftc.gov. The courtesy copy should be transmitted at or shortly after the time of any electronic filing with the Office of the Secretary. Courtesy copies must be transmitted to Office of the Administrative Law Judge directly, and the FTC E-filing system shall not be used for this purpose. The oyalj@ftc.gov email account is to be used only for courtesy copies of pleadings filed with the Office of the Secretary and for documents specifically requested of the parties by the Office of Administrative Law Judges. Certificates of service for any pleading shall not include the OALJ email address, or the email address of any OALJ personnel, including the Chief ALJ, but rather shall designate only 600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Rm. H-110 as the place of service. The subject line of all electronic submissions to oyalj@ftc.gov shall set forth only the docket number and the title of the submission. The parties are not required to serve a courtesy copy to the OALJ in hard copy, except upon request. In any instance in which a courtesy copy of a pleading for the Administrative Law Judge cannot be effectuated by electronic mail, counsel shall hand deliver a hard copy to the Office of Administrative Law Judges. Discovery requests and discovery responses shall not be submitted to the Office of Administrative Law Judges.

2. The parties shall serve each other by electronic mail and shall include "Docket 9378" in the re: line and all attached documents in .pdf format. In the event that service through electronic mail is not possible, the parties may serve each other through any method authorized under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

3. Each pleading that cites to unpublished opinions or opinions not available on LEXIS or WESTLAW shall include such copies as exhibits.

4. Each motion (other than a motion to dismiss, motion for summary decision, or a motion for in camera treatment) shall be accompanied by a separate signed statement representing that counsel for the moving party has conferred with opposing counsel in an effort in good faith to resolve by agreement the issues raised by the motion and has been unable to reach such an agreement. In addition, pursuant to Rule 3.22(g), for each motion to quash filed pursuant to § 3.34(c), each motion to compel or determine sufficiency pursuant to § 3.38(a), or each motion for sanctions pursuant to § 3.38(b), the required signed statement must also “recite the date, time, and place of each . . . conference between counsel, and the names of all parties participating in each such conference.” Motions that fail to include such separate statement may be denied on that ground.

5. Rule 3.22(c) states:

All written motions shall state the particular order, ruling, or action desired and the grounds therefor. Memoranda in support of, or in opposition to, any dispositive motion shall not exceed 10,000 words. Memoranda in support of, or in opposition to, any other motion shall not exceed 2,500 words. Any reply in support of a dispositive motion shall not exceed 5,000 words and any reply in support of any other motion authorized by the Administrative Law Judge or the Commission shall not exceed 1,250 words.

If a party chooses to submit a motion without a separate memorandum, the word count limits of 3.22(c) apply to the motion. If a party chooses to submit a motion with a separate memorandum, absent prior approval of the ALJ, the motion shall be limited to 750 words, and the word count limits of 3.22(c) apply to the memorandum in support of the motion. This provision applies to all motions filed with the Administrative Law Judge, including those filed under Rule 3.38.

6. If papers filed with the Office of the Secretary contain in camera or confidential material, the filing party shall mark any such material in the complete version of their submission with {bold font and braces}. 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(e). Parties shall be aware of the rules for filings containing such information, including 16 C.F.R. § 4.2.

7. If a party intends to offer confidential materials of an opposing party or non-party as evidence at the hearing, in providing notice to such non-party, the parties are required to inform each non-party of the strict standards for motions for in camera treatment for evidence to be introduced at trial set forth in 16 C.F.R. § 3.45, explained in In re 1-800 Contacts, Inc., 2017 FTC LEXIS 55 (April 4, 2017); In re Jerk, LLC, 2015 FTC LEXIS (Feb. 23, 2015); In re Basic Research, Inc., 2006 FTC LEXIS 14 (Jan. 25, 2006). Motions also must be supported by a declaration or affidavit by a person qualified to explain the confidential nature of the documents. In re 1-800 Contacts, Inc., 2017 FTC LEXIS 55 (April 4, 2017); In re North Texas Specialty Physicians, 2004 FTC LEXIS 66 (April 23, 2004). Each party or non-party that files a motion for in camera treatment shall provide one copy of the documents for which in camera treatment is sought to the Administrative Law Judge.

8. If the expert reports prepared for either party contain confidential information that has been granted in camera treatment, the party shall prepare two versions of its expert report(s) in accordance with Additional Provision 6 of this Scheduling Order and 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(e).

9. Motions in limine are strongly discouraged. Motion in limine refers “to any motion, whether made before or during trial, to exclude anticipated prejudicial evidence before the evidence is actually offered.” In re Daniel Chapter One, 2009 FTC LEXIS 85, *18-20 (April 20, 2009) (citing Luce v. United States, 469 U.S. 38, 40 n.2 (1984)). Evidence should be excluded in advance of trial on a motion in limine only when the evidence is clearly inadmissible on all potential grounds. Id. (citing Hawthorne Partners v. AT&T Technologies, Inc., 831 F. Supp. 1398, 1400 (N.D. Ill. 1993); Sec. Exch. Comm’n v. U.S. Environmental, Inc., 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19701, at *5-6 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 16, 2002)). Moreover, the risk of prejudice from giving undue weight to marginally relevant evidence is minimal in a bench trial such as this where the judge is capable of assigning appropriate weight to evidence.

10. Compliance with the scheduled end of discovery requires that the parties serve subpoenas and discovery requests sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off and that all responses and objections will be due on or before that date, unless otherwise noted. Any motion to compel responses to discovery requests shall be filed within 30 days of service of the responses and/or objections to the discovery requests or within 20 days after the close of discovery, whichever first occurs; except that, where the parties have been engaging in negotiations over a discovery dispute, the deadline for the motion to compel shall be within 5 days of reaching an impasse.

11. Each party is limited to 50 document requests, including all discrete subparts; 25 interrogatories, including all discrete subparts; and 50 requests for admissions, including all discrete subparts, except that there shall be no limit on the number of requests for admission for authentication and admissibility of exhibits. Any single interrogatory inquiring as to a request for admissions response may address only a single such response. There is no limit to the number of sets of discovery requests the parties may issue, so long as the total number of each type of discovery request, including all subparts, does not exceed these limits. Within seven days of service of a document request, the parties shall confer about the format for the production of electronically stored information. If any federal court proceeding related to this administrative proceeding is initiated, any discovery obtained in this proceeding may be used in the related federal court litigation, and vice versa.

12. The deposition of any person may be recorded by videotape, provided that the deposing party notifies the deponent and all parties of its intention to record the deposition by videotape at least five days in advance of the deposition. No deposition, whether recorded by videotape or otherwise, may exceed a single, seven-hour day, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Administrative Law Judge.

13. The parties shall serve upon one another, at the time of issuance, copies of all subpoenas duces tecum and subpoenas ad testificandum. For subpoenas ad testificandum, the party seeking the deposition shall consult with the other parties before the time and place of the deposition is scheduled. The parties need not separately notice the deposition of a non-party noticed by an opposing party. Unless the parties otherwise agree, at the request of any party, the time and allocation for a non-party deposition shall be divided evenly between them, but the noticing party may use any additional time not used by the opposing party. If no party makes such a request, cross-examination of the witness will be limited to one hour.

14. Non-parties shall provide copies or make available for inspection and copying of documents requested by subpoena to the party issuing the subpoena. The party that has requested documents from non-parties shall provide copies of the documents received from non-parties to the opposing party within three business days of receiving the documents. No deposition of a non-party shall be scheduled between the time a non-party provides documents in response to a subpoena duces tecum to a party, and 3 business days after the party provides those documents to the other party, unless a shorter time is required by unforeseen logistical issues in scheduling the deposition, or a non-party produces those documents at the time of the deposition, as agreed to by all parties involved.

15. The final witness lists shall represent counsels' good faith designation of all potential witnesses who counsel reasonably expect may be called in their case-in-chief. Parties shall notify the opposing party promptly of changes in witness lists to facilitate completion of discovery within the dates of the scheduling order. The final proposed witness list may not include additional witnesses not listed in the preliminary or supplemental witness lists previously exchanged unless by consent of all parties, or, if the parties do not consent, by an order of the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of good cause.

16. The final exhibit lists shall represent counsels' good faith designation of all trial exhibits other than demonstrative, illustrative, or summary exhibits. Additional exhibits may be added after the submission of the final lists only by consent of all parties, or, if the parties do not consent, by an order of the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of good cause.

17. Witnesses shall not testify to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of the matter. F.R.E. 602.

18. Witnesses not properly designated as expert witnesses shall not provide opinions beyond what is allowed in F.R.E. 701.

19. The parties are required to comply with Rule 3.31A and with the following:

(a) At the time an expert is first listed as a witness by a party, that party shall provide to the other party:

(i) materials fully describing or identifying the background and qualifications of the expert, all publications authored by the expert within the preceding ten years, and all prior cases in which the expert has testified or has been deposed within the preceding four years; and

(ii) transcripts of such testimony in the possession, custody, or control of the producing party or the expert, except that transcript sections that are under seal in a separate proceeding need not be produced.

(b) At the time an expert report is produced, the producing party shall provide to the other party all documents and other written materials relied upon by the expert in formulating an opinion in this case, subject to the provisions of 19(g), except that documents and materials already produced in the case need only be listed by Bates number.

(c) It shall be the responsibility of a party designating an expert witness to ensure that the expert witness is reasonably available for deposition in keeping with this Scheduling Order. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Administrative Law Judge, expert witnesses shall be deposed only once and each expert deposition shall be limited to one day for seven hours.

(d) Each expert report shall include a complete statement of all opinions to be expressed and the basis and reasons therefore; the data or other information considered by the expert in forming the opinions; any exhibits to be used as a summary of or support for the opinions; the qualifications of the expert; and the compensation to be paid for the study and testimony.

(e) A party may not discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of this litigation or preparation for hearing and who is not designated by a party as a testifying witness.

(f) At the time of service of the expert reports, a party shall provide opposing counsel:

(i) a list of all commercially-available computer programs used by the expert in the preparation of the report;

(ii) a copy of all data sets used by the expert, in native file format and processed data file format; and

(iii) all customized computer programs used by the expert in the preparation of the report or necessary to replicate the findings on which the expert report is based.

(g) Experts' disclosures and reports shall comply in all respects with Rule 3.31A, except that neither side must preserve or disclose:

(i) any form of communication or work product shared between any of the parties' counsel and their expert(s), or between any of the experts themselves;

(ii) any form of communication or work product shared between an expert(s) and persons assisting the expert(s);

(iii) expert's notes, unless they constitute the only record of a fact or an assumption relied upon by the expert in formulating an opinion in this case;

(iv) drafts of expert reports, analyses, or other work product; or

(v) data formulations, data runs, data analyses, or any database-related operations not relied upon by the expert in the opinions contained in his or her final report.

20. An expert witness's testimony is limited to opinions contained in the expert report that has been previously and properly provided to the opposing party. In addition, no opinion will be considered, even if included in an expert report, if the underlying and supporting documents and information have not been properly provided to the opposing party. Unless an expert witness is qualified as a fact witness, an expert witness is only allowed to provide opinion testimony; expert testimony is not considered for the purpose of establishing the underlying facts of the case.

21. Properly admitted deposition testimony and properly admitted investigational hearing transcripts are part of the record and need not be read in open court. Videotape deposition excerpts that have been admitted in evidence may be presented in open court only upon prior approval by the Administrative Law Judge.

22. The parties shall provide one another, and the Administrative Law Judge, no later than 48 hours in advance, not including weekends and holidays, a list of all witnesses to be called on each day of hearing, subject to possible delays or other unforeseen circumstances.

23. The parties shall provide one another with copies of any demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits (other than those prepared for cross-examination) 24 hours before they are used with a witness.

24. Complaint Counsel's exhibits shall bear the designation PX and Respondent's exhibits shall bear the designation RX or some other appropriate designation. Complaint Counsel's demonstrative exhibits shall bear the designation PXD and Respondent's demonstrative exhibits shall bear the designation RXD or some other appropriate designation. If demonstrative exhibits are used with a witness, the exhibit will be marked and referred to for identification only. Any demonstrative exhibits referred to by any witness may be included in the trial record, but they are not part of the evidentiary record and may not be cited to support any disputed fact. Both sides shall number the first page of each exhibit with a single series of consecutive numbers. When an exhibit consists of more than one piece of paper, each page of the exhibit must bear a consecutive control number or some other consecutive page number. Additionally, parties must account for all their respective exhibit numbers. Any number not actually used at the hearing shall be designated "intentionally not used."

PUBLIC

25. At the final prehearing conference, counsel will be required to introduce all exhibits they intend to introduce at trial and to provide the exhibits to the court reporter. The parties shall confer and shall eliminate duplicative exhibits in advance of the final prehearing conference and, if necessary, during trial. For example, if PX100 and RX200 are different copies of the same document, only one of those documents shall be offered into evidence. The parties shall agree in advance as to which exhibit number they intend to use. Counsel shall contact the court reporter regarding submission of exhibits.

SCHEDULING ORDER

- January 3, 2018 - Complaint Counsel provides preliminary witness list (not including experts) with a brief summary of the proposed testimony.
- January 10, 2018 - Respondents' Counsel provides preliminary witness list (not including experts) with a brief summary of the proposed testimony.
- January 17, 2018 - Complaint Counsel provides expert witness list.
- January 31, 2018 - Respondents' Counsel provides expert witness list.
- February 9, 2018 - Deadline for issuing document requests, interrogatories and subpoenas duces tecum, except for discovery for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.

- February 16, 2018 - Deadline for supplementing preliminary witness lists.
- March 1, 2018 - Deadline for issuing requests for admissions, except for requests for admissions for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- March 13, 2018 - Close of discovery, other than discovery permitted under Rule 3.24(a)(4), depositions of experts, and discovery for purposes of authenticity and admissibility of exhibits.
- March 26, 2018 - Deadline for Complaint Counsel to provide expert witness reports.
- March 30, 2018 - Complaint Counsel provides to Respondents' Counsel its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, including depositions, copies of all exhibits (except for demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits and expert related exhibits), Complaint Counsel's basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness.

Complaint Counsel serves courtesy copies on ALJ of its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, its basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness, including its expert witnesses.

- April 10, 2018 - Deadline for Respondents' Counsel to provide expert witness reports (to be provided by 4 p.m. ET). Respondents' expert report shall include (without limitation) rebuttal, if any, to Complaint Counsel's expert witness report(s).

- April 10, 2018 - Respondents' Counsel provides to Complaint Counsel its final proposed witness and exhibit lists, including depositions, copies of all exhibits (except for demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits and expert related exhibits), Respondents' basis of admissibility for each proposed exhibit, and a brief summary of the testimony of each witness.

- April 10, 2018 - Parties that intend to offer confidential materials of an opposing party or non-party as evidence at the hearing must provide notice to the opposing party or non-party, pursuant to 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(b).<sup>1</sup> See Additional Provision 7.
- April 19, 2018 - Complaint Counsel to identify rebuttal expert(s) and provide rebuttal expert report(s). Any such reports are to be limited to rebuttal of matters set forth in Respondents' expert reports. If material outside the scope of fair rebuttal is presented, Respondents will have the right to seek appropriate relief (such as striking Complaint Counsel's rebuttal expert reports or seeking leave to submit surrebuttal expert reports on behalf of Respondents).
- April 23, 2018 - Deadline for filing motions in limine to preclude admission of evidence. See Additional Provision 9.
- April 23, 2018 - Deadline for filing motions for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits.
- April 24, 2018 - Deadline for depositions of experts (including rebuttal experts) and exchange of expert related exhibits.
- April 30, 2018 - Exchange and serve courtesy copy on ALJ objections to final proposed witness lists and exhibit lists. The Parties are directed to review the Commission's Rules on admissibility of evidence before filing objections to exhibits.
- April 30, 2018 - Complaint Counsel files pretrial brief supported by legal authority.
- April 30, 2018 - Deadline for filing responses to motions in limine to preclude admission of evidence.
- April 30, 2018 - Deadline for filing responses to motions for in camera treatment of proposed trial exhibits.

<sup>1</sup> Appendix A to Commission Rule 3.31, the Standard Protective Order, states that if a party or third party wishes in camera treatment for a document or transcript that a party intends to introduce into evidence, that party or third party shall file an appropriate motion with the Administrative Law Judge within 5 days after it receives notice of a party's intent to introduce such material. Commission Rule 3.45(b) states that parties who seek to use material obtained from a third party subject to confidentiality restrictions must demonstrate that the third party has been given at least 10 days' notice of the proposed use of such material. To resolve this apparent conflict, the Scheduling Order requires that the parties provide 10 days' notice to the opposing party or third parties to allow for the filing of motions for in camera treatment.

PUBLIC

- May 1, 2018 - Exchange proposed stipulations of law, facts, and authenticity.
- May 1, 2018 - Respondents' Counsel files pretrial brief supported by legal authority.
- May 4, 2018 - Final prehearing conference to begin at 1:00 p.m. in FTC Courtroom, Room 532, Federal Trade Commission Building, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

The parties shall meet and confer prior to the prehearing conference regarding trial logistics and proposed stipulations of law, facts, and authenticity of exhibits. To the extent the parties have agreed to stipulate to any issues of law, facts, and/or authenticity of exhibits, the parties shall prepare a list of such stipulations and submit a copy of the stipulations to the ALJ one business day prior to the conference. At the conference, the parties' list of stipulations shall be marked as "JX1" and signed by each party, and the list shall be offered into evidence as a joint exhibit. No signature by the ALJ is required. Any subsequent stipulations may be offered as agreed by the parties.

Counsel may present any objections to the final proposed witness lists and exhibits. Trial exhibits will be admitted or excluded to the extent practicable. To the extent the parties agree to the admission of each other's exhibits, the parties shall prepare a list identifying each exhibit to which admissibility is agreed, marked as "JX2" and signed by each party, which list shall be offered into evidence as a joint exhibit. No signature by the ALJ is required.

- May 8, 2018 - Commencement of Hearing, to begin at 10:00 a.m. in FTC Courtroom, Room 532, Federal Trade Commission Building, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

1. For all papers that are required to be filed with the Office of the Secretary, the parties shall serve a courtesy copy on the Administrative Law Judge by electronic mail to the following email address: oalj@ftc.gov. The courtesy copy should be transmitted at or shortly after the time of any electronic filing with the Office of the Secretary. Courtesy copies must be transmitted to Office of the Administrative Law Judge directly, and the FTC E-filing system shall not be used for this purpose. The oalj@ftc.gov email account is to be used only for courtesy copies of pleadings filed with the Office of the Secretary and for documents specifically requested of the parties by the Office of Administrative Law Judges. Certificates of service for any pleading shall not include the OALJ email address, or the email address of any OALJ personnel, including the Chief ALJ, but rather shall designate only 600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Rm. H-110 as the place of service. The subject line of all electronic submissions to oalj@ftc.gov shall set forth only the docket number and the title of the submission. The parties are not required to serve a courtesy copy to the OALJ in hard copy, except upon request. In any instance in which a courtesy copy of a pleading for the Administrative Law Judge cannot be effectuated by electronic mail, counsel shall hand deliver a hard copy to the Office of Administrative Law Judges. Discovery requests and discovery responses shall not be submitted to the Office of Administrative Law Judges.

2. The parties shall serve each other by electronic mail and shall include “Docket 9377” in the re: line and all attached documents in .pdf format. In the event that service through electronic mail is not possible, the parties may serve each other through any method authorized under the Commission’s Rules of Practice.

3. Each pleading that cites to unpublished opinions or opinions not available on LEXIS or WESTLAW shall include such copies as exhibits.

4. Each motion (other than a motion to dismiss, motion for summary decision, or a motion for in camera treatment) shall be accompanied by a separate signed statement representing that counsel for the moving party has conferred with opposing counsel in an effort in good faith to resolve by agreement the issues raised by the motion and has been unable to reach such an agreement. In addition, pursuant to Rule 3.22(g), for each motion to quash filed pursuant to § 3.34(c), each motion to compel or determine sufficiency pursuant to § 3.38(a), or each motion for sanctions pursuant to § 3.38(b), the required signed statement must also “recite the date, time, and place of each . . . conference between counsel, and the names of all parties participating in each such conference.” Motions that fail to include such separate statement may be denied on that ground.

5. Rule 3.22(c) states:

All written motions shall state the particular order, ruling, or action desired and the grounds therefor. Memoranda in support of, or in opposition to, any dispositive motion shall not exceed 10,000 words. Memoranda in support of, or in opposition to, any other motion shall not exceed 2,500 words. Any reply in support of a dispositive motion shall not exceed 5,000 words and any reply in support of any other motion authorized by the Administrative Law Judge or the Commission shall not exceed 1,250 words.

If a party chooses to submit a motion without a separate memorandum, the word count limits of 3.22(c) apply to the motion. If a party chooses to submit a motion with a separate memorandum, absent prior approval of the ALJ, the motion shall be limited to 750 words, and the word count limits of 3.22(c) apply to the memorandum in support of the motion. This provision applies to all motions filed with the Administrative Law Judge, including those filed under Rule 3.38.

6. If papers filed with the Office of the Secretary contain in camera or confidential material, the filing party shall mark any such material in the complete version of their submission with {bold font and braces}. 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(e). Parties shall be aware of the rules for filings containing such information, including 16 C.F.R. § 4.2.

7. If a party intends to offer confidential materials of an opposing party or non-party as evidence at the hearing, in providing notice to such non-party, the parties are required to inform each non-party of the strict standards for motions for in camera treatment for evidence to be introduced at trial set forth in 16 C.F.R. § 3.45, explained in In re 1-800 Contacts, Inc., 2017 FTC LEXIS 55 (April 4, 2017); In re Jerk, LLC, 2015 FTC LEXIS (Feb. 23, 2015); In re Basic Research, Inc., 2006 FTC LEXIS 14 (Jan. 25, 2006). Motions also must be supported by a declaration or affidavit by a person qualified to explain the confidential nature of the documents. In re 1-800 Contacts, Inc., 2017 FTC LEXIS 55 (April 4, 2017); In re North Texas Specialty Physicians, 2004 FTC LEXIS 66 (April 23, 2004). Each party or non-party that files a motion for in camera treatment shall provide one copy of the documents for which in camera treatment is sought to the Administrative Law Judge.

8. If the expert reports prepared for either party contain confidential information that has been granted in camera treatment, the party shall prepare two versions of its expert report(s) in accordance with Additional Provision 6 of this Scheduling Order and 16 C.F.R. § 3.45(e).

9. Motions in limine are strongly discouraged. Motion in limine refers “to any motion, whether made before or during trial, to exclude anticipated prejudicial evidence before the evidence is actually offered.” In re Daniel Chapter One, 2009 FTC LEXIS 85, *18-20 (April 20, 2009) (citing Luce v. United States, 469 U.S. 38, 40 n.2 (1984)). Evidence should be excluded in advance of trial on a motion in limine only when the evidence is clearly inadmissible on all potential grounds. Id. (citing Hawthorne Partners v. AT&T Technologies, Inc., 831 F. Supp. 1398, 1400 (N.D. Ill. 1993); Sec. Exch. Comm’n v. U.S. Environmental, Inc., 2002 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19701, at *5-6 (S.D.N.Y. Oct. 16, 2002)). Moreover, the risk of prejudice from giving undue weight to marginally relevant evidence is minimal in a bench trial such as this where the judge is capable of assigning appropriate weight to evidence.

10. Compliance with the scheduled end of discovery requires that the parties serve subpoenas and discovery requests sufficiently in advance of the discovery cut-off and that all responses and objections will be due on or before that date, unless otherwise noted. Any motion to compel responses to discovery requests shall be filed within 30 days of service of the responses and/or objections to the discovery requests or within 20 days after the close of discovery, whichever first occurs; except that, where the parties have been engaging in negotiations over a discovery dispute, the deadline for the motion to compel shall be within 5 days of reaching an impasse.

11. Each party is limited to 50 document requests, including all discrete subparts; 25 interrogatories, including all discrete subparts; and 50 requests for admissions, including all discrete subparts, except that there shall be no limit on the number of requests for admission for authentication and admissibility of exhibits. Any single interrogatory inquiring as to a request for admissions response may address only a single such response. There is no limit to the number of sets of discovery requests the parties may issue, so long as the total number of each type of discovery request, including all subparts, does not exceed these limits. Within seven days of service of a document request, the parties shall confer about the format for the production of electronically stored information.

12. The deposition of any person may be recorded by videotape, provided that the deposing party notifies the deponent and all parties of its intention to record the deposition by videotape at least five days in advance of the deposition. No deposition, whether recorded by videotape or otherwise, may exceed a single, seven-hour day, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Administrative Law Judge.

13. The parties shall serve upon one another, at the time of issuance, copies of all subpoenas duces tecum and subpoenas ad testificandum. For subpoenas ad testificandum, the party seeking the deposition shall consult with the other parties before the time and place of the deposition is scheduled. The parties need not separately notice the deposition of a non-party noticed by an opposing party. Unless the parties otherwise agree, at the request of any party, the time and allocation for a non-party deposition shall be divided evenly between them, but the noticing party may use any additional time not used by the opposing party. If no party makes such a request, cross-examination of the witness will be limited to one hour.

14. Non-parties shall provide copies or make available for inspection and copying of documents requested by subpoena to the party issuing the subpoena. The party that has requested documents from non-parties shall provide copies of the documents received from non-parties to the opposing party within three business days of receiving the documents. No deposition of a non-party shall be scheduled between the time a non-party provides documents in response to a subpoena duces tecum to a party, and 3 business days after the party provides those documents to the other party, unless a shorter time is required by unforeseen logistical issues in scheduling the deposition, or a non-party produces those documents at the time of the deposition, as agreed to by all parties involved.

15. The final witness lists shall represent counsels' good faith designation of all potential witnesses who counsel reasonably expect may be called in their case-in-chief. Parties shall notify the opposing party promptly of changes in witness lists to facilitate completion of discovery within the dates of the scheduling order. The final proposed witness list may not include additional witnesses not listed in the preliminary or supplemental witness lists previously exchanged unless by consent of all parties, or, if the parties do not consent, by an order of the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of good cause.

16. The final exhibit lists shall represent counsels' good faith designation of all trial exhibits other than demonstrative, illustrative, or summary exhibits. Additional exhibits may be added after the submission of the final lists only by consent of all parties, or, if the parties do not consent, by an order of the Administrative Law Judge upon a showing of good cause.

17. Witnesses shall not testify to a matter unless evidence is introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of the matter. F.R.E. 602.

18. Witnesses not properly designated as expert witnesses shall not provide opinions beyond what is allowed in F.R.E. 701.

19. The parties are required to comply with Rule 3.31A and with the following:

(a) At the time an expert is first listed as a witness by a party, that party shall provide to the other party:

(i) materials fully describing or identifying the background and qualifications of the expert, all publications authored by the expert within the preceding ten years, and all prior cases in which the expert has testified or has been deposed within the preceding four years; and

(ii) transcripts of such testimony in the possession, custody, or control of the producing party or the expert, except that transcript sections that are under seal in a separate proceeding need not be produced.

(b) At the time an expert report is produced, the producing party shall provide to the other party all documents and other written materials relied upon by the expert in formulating an opinion in this case, subject to the provisions of 19(g), except that documents and materials already produced in the case need only be listed by Bates number.

(c) It shall be the responsibility of a party designating an expert witness to ensure that the expert witness is reasonably available for deposition in keeping with this Scheduling Order. Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Administrative Law Judge, expert witnesses shall be deposed only once and each expert deposition shall be limited to one day for seven hours.

(d) Each expert report shall include a complete statement of all opinions to be expressed and the basis and reasons therefore; the data or other information considered by the expert in forming the opinions; any exhibits to be used as a summary of or support for the opinions; the qualifications of the expert; and the compensation to be paid for the study and testimony.

(e) A party may not discover facts known or opinions held by an expert who has been retained or specially employed by another party in anticipation of this litigation or preparation for hearing and who is not designated by a party as a testifying witness.

(f) At the time of service of the expert reports, a party shall provide opposing counsel:

(i) a list of all commercially-available computer programs used by the expert in the preparation of the report;

(ii) a copy of all data sets used by the expert, in native file format and processed data file format; and

(iii) all customized computer programs used by the expert in the preparation of the report or necessary to replicate the findings on which the expert report is based.

(g) Experts' disclosures and reports shall comply in all respects with Rule 3.31A, except that neither side must preserve or disclose:

(i) any form of communication or work product shared between any of the parties' counsel and their expert(s), or between any of the experts themselves;

(ii) any form of communication or work product shared between an expert(s) and persons assisting the expert(s);

(iii) expert's notes, unless they constitute the only record of a fact or an assumption relied upon by the expert in formulating an opinion in this case;

(iv) drafts of expert reports, analyses, or other work product; or

(v) data formulations, data runs, data analyses, or any database-related operations not relied upon by the expert in the opinions contained in his or her final report.

20. An expert witness's testimony is limited to opinions contained in the expert report that has been previously and properly provided to the opposing party. In addition, no opinion will be considered, even if included in an expert report, if the underlying and supporting documents and information have not been properly provided to the opposing party. Unless an expert witness is qualified as a fact witness, an expert witness is only allowed to provide opinion testimony; expert testimony is not considered for the purpose of establishing the underlying facts of the case.

21. Properly admitted deposition testimony and properly admitted investigational hearing transcripts are part of the record and need not be read in open court. Videotape deposition excerpts that have been admitted in evidence may be presented in open court only upon prior approval by the Administrative Law Judge.

22. The parties shall provide one another, and the Administrative Law Judge, no later than 48 hours in advance, not including weekends and holidays, a list of all witnesses to be called on each day of hearing, subject to possible delays or other unforeseen circumstances.

23. The parties shall provide one another with copies of any demonstrative, illustrative or summary exhibits (other than those prepared for cross-examination) 24 hours before they are used with a witness.

24. Complaint Counsel's exhibits shall bear the designation CCX and Respondents' exhibits shall bear the designation RX or some other appropriate designation. Complaint Counsel's demonstrative exhibits shall bear the designation CCXD and Respondents' demonstrative exhibits shall bear the designation RXD or some other appropriate designation. If demonstrative exhibits are used with a witness, the exhibit will be marked and referred to for identification only. Any demonstrative exhibits referred to by any witness may be included in the trial record, but they are not part of the evidentiary record and may not be cited to support any disputed fact. Both sides shall number the first page of each exhibit with a single series of consecutive numbers. When an exhibit consists of more than one piece of paper, each page of the exhibit must bear a consecutive control number or some other consecutive page number. Additionally, parties must account for all their respective exhibit numbers. Any number not actually used at the hearing shall be designated "intentionally not used."

25. At the final prehearing conference, counsel will be required to introduce all exhibits they intend to introduce at trial and to provide the exhibits to the court reporter. The parties shall confer and shall eliminate duplicative exhibits in advance of the final prehearing conference and, if necessary, during trial. For example, if CCX 100 and RX 200 are different copies of the same document, only one of those documents shall be offered into evidence. The parties shall agree in advance as to which exhibit number they intend to use. Counsel shall contact the court reporter regarding submission of exhibits.
